The Political Novel in the South Slavic Intercultural Context Ethem Mandic, 2023-09-18 The Political Novel in the South Slavic Intercultural Context investigates the problem of the genre of the most elusive literary genre, the political novel, and the presence of political in novels of South Slavic literature, primarily in the intercultural South Slavic social context as well as in the context of contemporary history of Southeast and Central Europe. This genre in the South Slavic inter-literary context has not yet been scientifically and systematically studied and presented, although there are critical and scientific reviews that indicate its presence in literary production. The best novels from the canonical South Slavic authors, Miroslav Krleža, Mihailo Lalić, Oskar Davico, Miodrag Bulatović, Ivo Andrić, Meša Selimović, Borislav Pekić, Mirko Kovac, Danilo Kiš, and others included in this book, thematize the political concepts of the twentieth century, so in the broadest sense they can be considered within the genre of political novel, including its subgenre variants. The political novel in South Slavic literatures in the intercultural context, in general, is a specific genre of the novel in relation to the political novel written in the West, an inter-literary phenomenon that was a critique of the Titoist regime and a literary response to the poetics and politics of social realism. It is conditioned by specific historical, political, and social movements during the twentieth century. The narrative of the political novel is a poetic resistance to ideological consciousness and a dogmatic view of reality.
