,2023-09-04 Reading has been touted as the most crucial and lacking skill for young South African children This book delves into the issues and measurement considerations surrounding reading literacy using the Progress in International Reading Literacy Study PIRLS data The contributors to this volume explore the complexities of measuring reading literacy with an international survey curricula misalignment and how the PIRLS framework can inform teaching and learning Contributors are Caroline B ning Celeste Combrinck Peter Courtney Martin Gustafsson Nompumelelo L Mohohlwane Nangamso Mtsatse Elizabeth Pretorius Karen Roux Claudia Schreiner Tobias Schroedler Nick Taylor Stephen Taylor Surette van Staden and Hans Wagemaker Multilingual classroom contexts Christa van der Walt,Verbra Pfeiffer,2021-12-01 By far the majority of South African students get their schooling in a second language which means that our classrooms are multilingual This state of affairs is not exclusive to our country as can be seen in the many academic conferences on multilingual learning and teaching Terms like translanguaging and biliteracy appear in many articles and books that discuss the role language in education What makes the multilingual nature of our South African classrooms challenging is the fact that many learners switch from one language of learning and teaching to another at various points in their school career from home language to English or Afrikaans after the foundation phase from one language of learning and teaching to another when they move to new schools high school or tertiary institutions This book is an attempt to highlight the transitions from home to school from foundation to intermediate phase from primary to high school and from high school to tertiary institutions Research in Education ,1971 Language, Literacy and Learning in Primary Schools Olatunde A. Adekola,2007 Language Literacy and Learning in Primary Schools is a synthesis of the findings arising from four years of policy research and development in Nigeria s primary schools that focused on the gap between what teachers should know and be able to do and the realities of teaching and learning in classrooms It begins by critically examining the outcomes of primary schooling as measured by learning achievement results from national assessments and by identifying some core learning problems for Nigerian primary school children It reviews the findings from recent research reports that studied teaching and learning processes in primary school classrooms and it identifies the pedagogical issues in primary classrooms that contribute to poor learning achievements This report describes a research and development program that set out to improve teaching and learning in core learning skill areas of the curriculum This study identifies priority areas for teachers professional development It suggests a policy framework for the continuing professional development of primary school teachers including the initial preparation of teachers and their induction into teaching It proposes medium and long term strategies to bring about the desired changes in teaching and learning through school based approaches to teacher development The Complete Book
