South Pacific Musical Script:

South Pacific Jim Lovensheimer, 2010-08-26 Rodgers and Hammerstein's Tony and Pulitzer Prize winning musical South Pacific has remained a mainstay of the American musical theater since it opened in 1949 and its powerful message about racial intolerance continues to resonate with twenty first century audiences Drawing on extensive research in the Rodgers and the Hammerstein papers including Hammerstein's personal notes on James A Michener's Tales of the South Pacific Jim Lovensheimer offers a fascinating reading of South Pacific that explores the show's complex messages and demonstrates how the presentation of those messages changed throughout the creative process Indeed the author shows how Rodgers and especially Hammerstein continually refined and softened the theme of racial intolerance until it was more acceptable to mainstream Broadway audiences Likewise Lovensheimer describes the treatment of gender and colonialism in the musical tracing how it both reflected and challenged early Cold War Era American norms The book also offers valuable background to the writing of South Pacific exploring the earlier careers of both Rodgers and Hammerstein showing how they frequently explored serious social issues in their other works and discussing their involvement in the political movements of their day such as Hammerstein's founding membership in the Hollywood Anti Nazi League Finally the book features many wonderful appendices including two that compare the original draft and final form of the classic songs I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out a My Hair and I'm In Love With a Wonderful Guy Thoroughly researched and compellingly written this superb book offers a rich intriguing portrait of a Broadway masterpiece and the era in which it was created

So You Want to Be a Scriptwriter and Make a Million Dollars Irving Elman, 2000 This book was written to fill a need when I started teaching script writing at Santa Monica College and my students asked me to name a book on the subject I could recommend After voluminous reading I could find nothing which was completely satisfactory Most of it seemed to have been written by people who had never written professionally for films and or television and thus had no first hand knowledge of it from personal experience The books were written from hearsay and observation like trying to learn how to swim by standing at the edge of a pool and watching others do it without ever getting into the water yourself Or trying to fly by flapping your arms like a bird It doesn't work They have no hands on or wings on concept of how commercially produceable scripts are actually put together and then marketed and are of no real practical help to the beginning writer or anyone else who's interested Only a swimmer or a bird or a writer who has made his living at it really knows how his special trick is done and can pass it on to others And so here it is Enjoy while you learn Because if writing isn't fun it's no way to make a living Rob banks instead but try not to get caught

Thomas S. Hischak,2014-01-10 The 525 notable works of 19th and 20th century American fiction in this reference book have many stage movie television and video adaptations Each literary work is described and then every adaptation is examined with a discussion of how accurate the version is and how well it succeeds in conveying the spirit of the original in a different medium In addition to famous novels and short stories by authors such as Nathaniel Hawthorne F Scott Fitzgerald and Willa Cather many bestsellers mysteries children s books young adult books horror novels science fiction detective stories and sensational potboilers from the past two centuries are examined Fixing the Musical Douglas L. Reside,2023 Thousands of shows have opened on Broadway Why do we remember some and not others The musical theatre repertory is not composed of titles popular in the theatre but by those with successful cast recordings movie versions or even illegal bootlegs on YouTube The shows audiences know and the texts and music they expect to hear when they attend a production are defined by media consumed at home more than by memories of performances witnessed in the theatre For example author Doug Reside shows that it is no accident that the serious book musical with a fixed score developed in the 1940s when commercially pressed and marketed record albums made it possible to record most of the score of a new musical in a fixed medium And Hamilton a musical with dense lyrics and revolutionary musical style would not have been as easily accessible to world audiences if most hadn't already had the opportunity to learn the score by listening to free digital streams of the original cast recording The technologies that made these media possible developed concurrently with and shaped the American musical as an art form Reside uncovers how the affordances and limitations of these technologies established a repertory of titles that are most frequently performed and defined by the texts used in these performances Fixing the Musical argues that the musicals we most remember are those which most effectively used their era's best recording and distribution technologies to document and share the work with those who would never see the original production on Broadway

Blues Mamas and Broadway Belters Masi Asare, 2024-09-20 In Blues Mamas and Broadway Belters songwriter scholar and dramatist Masi Asare explores the singing practice of black women singers in US musical theatre between 1900 and 1970 Asare shows how a vanguard of black women singers including Gertrude Ma Rainey Bessie Smith Ethel Waters Pearl Bailey Juanita Hall Lena Horne Eartha Kitt Diahann Carroll and Leslie Uggams created a lineage of highly trained and effective voice teachers whose sound and vocal techniques continue to be heard today Challenging pervasive narratives that these and other black women possessed untrained voices Asare theorizes singing as a form of sonic citational practice how the sound of the teacher's voice lives on in the student's singing From vaudeville blues shouters black torch singers and character actresses to nightclub vocalists and Broadway glamour girls Asare locates black women of the musical stage in the context of historical voice pedagogy She invites readers not only to study these singers but to study with them taking seriously what they and their contemporaries have taught about the voice Ultimately Asare speaks to the need to feel and hear the racial history in contemporary musical theatre The Sound of Their Music Frederick W. Nolan, 2002-09 Applause Books The greatest partnership in the history of the musical captured in print wonderfully illustrated For this new edition the book has been completely rewritten and substantially expanded to include material on Rodgers' early career with Lorenz Hart as well as his later work and also features recollections from such theatrical titans as Sheldon Harnick Martin Charnin Stephen Sondheim and Arthur Laurents Also a completely new appendix reveals the details of the continuing worldwide phenomenon of Rodgers and Hammerstein's work up to and including the 2002 centennial year for Rodgers Sound and Music for the Theatre Deena Kaye, James LeBrecht, 2015-09-25 Covering every phase of a theatrical production this fourth edition of Sound and Music for the Theatre traces the process of sound design from initial concept through implementation in actual performances The book discusses the early evolution of sound design and how it supports the play from researching sources for music and effects to negotiating a contract It shows you how to organize the construction of the sound design elements how the designer functions in a rehearsal and how to set up and train an operator to run sound equipment This instructive information is interspersed with war stores describing real life problems with solutions that you can apply in your own work whether you re a sound designer composer or sound operator The Richard Rodgers Reader Geoffrey Block,2006 Richard Rodgers was one of America s most prolific and best loved composers A world without My Funny Valentine The Lady is a Tramp Blue Moon and Bewitched to name just a few of the songs he wrote with Lorenz Hart is scarcely imaginable and the musicals he wrote with his second collaborator Oscar Hammerstein Oklahoma Carousel South Pacific The King and I and The Sound of Music continue to enchant and entertain audiences Arranged in four sections Rodgers and Hart 1929 1943 Rodgers and Hammerstein 1943 1960 Rodgers After Hammerstein 1960 1979 and The Composer Speaks 1939 1971 The Richard Rodgers Reader offers a cornucopia of informative perceptive and stylish biographical and critical overviews It also contains a selection of Rodgers s letters to his wife Dorothy in the 1920s the 1938 Time magazine cover story and New Yorker profiles in 1938 and 1961 and essays and reviews by such noted critics as Brooks Atkinson Eric Bentley Leonard Bernstein Lehman Engel Walter Kerr Ken Mandelbaum Ethan Mordden George Jean Nathan and Alec Wilder The volume features personal accounts by Richard Adler Agnes de Mille Joshua Logan Mary Martin and Diahann Carroll The collection concludes with complete selections from more than thirty years of Rodgers s own writings on topics ranging from the creative process the state of the Broadway theater even Rodgers s bout with cancer and a generous sample from the candid and previously unpublished Columbia University interviews For anyone wishing to explore more fully the life and work of a composer whose songs and musicals have assumed a permanent and prominent place in American popular culture The Richard Rodgers Reader will offer endless delights Theatre World 2005-2006: The Most
