Souvenirs Biographies Autobiographies:

Consuming Autobiographies Claire Boyle, 2017-12-02 Since 1975 French literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the French term écriture de soi. This coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self-consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned. In the first book-length study in English to address this phenomenon Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground-breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post-war authors: Nathalie Sarraute, Georges Perec, Jean Genet and Hélène Cixous. She identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge. Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self. Biography / Autobiography Awards 1917-1992 Heinz-D. Fischer, 2011-04-20 The School of Journalism at Columbia University has awarded the Pulitzer Prize since 1917. Nowadays there are prizes in 21 categories from the fields of journalism, literature and music. The Pulitzer Prize Archive presents the history of this award from its beginnings to the present. In parts A to E the awarding of the prize in each category is documented, commented and arranged chronologically. Part F covers the history of the prize biographically and bibliographically. Part G provides the background to the decisions. The New Biography Jo Burr Margadant, 2000-09-04 This collection offers new perspectives on the lives of eight famous women in nineteenth-century France. Mark Twain began writing his autobiography long before the 1906 publications of these chapters from my Autobiography. He originally planned to have his memoirs published only after his death but realized once he'd passed his 70th year that a lot of the material might be OK to publish before his departure. These chapters were published in serial form in the North American Review during 1906-1907. While much of the material consists of stories about the people, places and incidents of his long life, there are also several sections from his daughter. In My Mark Twain Howells pens a literary memoir that includes such fascinating scenes as their meetings with former president Ulysses Grant who was then writing the classic autobiography that Twain would underwrite in the largest publishing deal until that time But it is also notable for its affectionate descriptions of his friend s family life during Howell s many visits to the Twain residences in Hartford and Stormfield Mark Twain A Biography and The Boys Life Of Mark Twain written by Albert Bigelow Paine are an invaluable resource to better understand Twain the stories behind his stories and his life with those he loved and with whom he worked Mark Twain pseudonym of Samuel Langhorne Clemens 1835 1910 quintessential American humorist lecturer essayist and author wrote The Adventures of Tom Sawyer William Dean Howells 1837 1920 was an American realist author and literary critic He was particularly known for his tenure as editor of the Atlantic Monthly as well as his own prolific writings including the Christmas story Christmas Every Day and the novel The Rise of Silas Lapham Albert Bigelow Paine 1861 1937 was Mark Twain s biographer He lived with Twain collecting ideas and material for a biography for a few years before Twain s death in 1910 The red baron -
