Somaliland Examination Board 2013

Jonathan Starr

Somaliland Examination Board 2013:

British Somaliland Brock Millman, 2013-12-04 British Somaliland provides a history of the administration of the British Somaliland Protectorate from the time when Somaliland first became governable following the defeat of Abdullah Hassan to independence Describing the interplay between general imperial policies and greater realities and developments in Somaliland the focus of the book remains on the mechanism by which the Protectorate was operated The regime that developed was in the end a highly autocratic despotism generally benign but occasionally predatory Independence when it arrived was in retrospect a tragedy Somaliland was absorbed into Somalia and a governmental style which suited the conditions of the Protectorate was dissolved into something very different Since the collapse of Somalia re emergent Somaliland appears to be attempting to re connect to a past remembered as something of a golden age Highly topical as Somaliland is re emerging this book is an invaluable resource for students and scholars of African History Imperial History and British History

It Takes a School Jonathan Starr, 2017-02-07 A story of David and Goliath proportions how an American hedge fund manager created a unique school in Somaliland whose students against all odds have come to achieve success beyond anyone s wildest dreams Jonathan Starr once a cutthroat hedge fund manager is not your traditional do gooder and in 2009 when he decided to found Abaarso a secondary school in Somaliland the choice seemed crazy to even his closest friends Why they wondered would he turn down a life of relative luxury to relocate to an armed compound in a breakaway region of the world s 1 failed state To achieve his mission Starr would have to overcome profound cultural differences broken promises and threats to his safety and that of his staff It Takes a School is the story of how an abstract vision became a transformative reality as Starr set out to build a school in a place forgotten by the world It is the story of a skeptical and clan based society learning to give way to trust And it s the story of the students themselves including a boy from a family of nomads who took off on his own in search of an education and a girl who waged a hunger strike in order to convince her strict parents to send her to Abaarso Abaarso has placed forty graduates and counting in American universities from Harvard to MIT and sends Somaliland a clear message its children can compete with anyone in the world Now the initial question Starr was asked demands another If such a success can happen in an unrecognized breakaway region of Somalia can it not happen anywhere
