Writing Skills for Nursing and Midwifery Students Dena Bain Taylor, 2012-11-16 Nursing and midwifery students are required to communicate in writing in a variety of forms for a variety of potential audiences including their colleagues, allied health professionals, administrators, and most importantly their patients and the public. Dena Bain Taylor is an experienced teacher of writing and critical skills across the range of allied health professions and understands the types of writing nursing and midwifery students do and the writing issues they face. Her accessible, straightforward book, tailored specifically to the content and conventions of nursing and midwifery curricula, teaches students to write persuasively and correctly both to support them in their courses and to prepare them for their professional careers. The book offers practical strategies for using language to achieve clear persuasive writing, provides clear explanations of underlying principles, contains samples of good and improvable writing, leading the student step by step through the whole writing process, focuses on the genres and styles of writing that nursing and midwifery students are typically asked for. With regular summaries, learning aids, checklists, and a glossary of key terms, nursing and midwifery students at all levels will find this book easy to follow and handy to refer to for help with the writing they need to do throughout their course.

Avoiding Plagiarism Dr. Ken K. Wong, 2011-01-07 Writing scholarly papers is a tough business when you plagiarize someone else's work; you not only risk getting a bad grade, you could be expelled. Avoiding Plagiarism helps students to write better papers and avoid mark deduction due to improper citing and referencing. Examples using APA, Chicago, and Harvard citation styles are examined and made easy. Advance Praise for Avoiding Plagiarism: Unlike other resources in this area, Dr. Wong's book provides additional information on tools for similarity detection and citation generation. Educators will find this book a valuable resource. Professor Wing Lam, Dean, U21 Global, Singapore. Knowing how to cite and reference are fundamental skills which are missing in many graduate students. This book provides those missing skills in an easy, innovative, and entertaining way. Richard Anthony, Indonesia. This book provides useful information considering all the queries that may pop up in a student's mind while attempting to provide citations and references. Tasneem Tailor, India.
