Something Better 2015 Adult Devotional:

Through the Storm: Adults, 30-Day Devotional Dell Staggers, 2014-07-01 Challenges are part of everyone's life. No matter what one's age, color, creed, or status in life is, storms will appear. The good news is that as believers in God, we are not alone. He promises to never leave or forsake us. Through the Storm is a thirty-day devotional that helps lift your spirit and remind you that storms don't last; always, the sun will shine again in your life. Dell Staggers has been in ministry for more than 15 years. Dell is a graduate of Luther College. He also received a Masters from Drake University and a Masters from the University of Scranton. He is a former school teacher and youth pastor. The Staggers have 3 beautiful children: David, Daniel, and Faith, and they currently reside just outside of Dallas, TX. Popular Pleasures Paul Duncum, 2021-08-26 Today's many popular aesthetic pleasures have a very long history. Paul Duncum considers the historical, critical discourses and socio-political issues raised by aesthetic pleasures in fifteen thematic chapters. Using illustrative examples from the past, present, and across cultures, he challenges the idea of any decline of cultural standards and argues that no grounds exist for cultural pessimism. Refusing to condemn popular culture on the basis of taste, he reserves critique for the socio-political ideologies aesthetics invariably serve. Art history, film, cultural studies, and philosophical aesthetics are each employed to show that the sensory, emotional lures of today's popular culture are mostly identical to those of premodern fine art. They include the violent, the horrific, the sentimental, the exotic, the erotic, and the humorous. Some of these pleasures derive from our evolutionary biology; they are all an important part of what it means to be human and central to understanding contemporary society. Examples are wide-ranging, including British seaside postcards, Disney films, Nazi propaganda, burlesque, modern advertising, as well as many exemplars of fine art. The book reveals fresh insights for all those studying visual culture, art history, aesthetics, media studies, and media and art education. The Bahá'í Faith and African American Studies Layli Maparyan, Loni Bramson, 2023-01-09 The Bahá'í Faith and African American Studies: Perspectives on Racial Justice provides readers who may already have basic or even advanced familiarity with the struggle for racial justice in the United States with new material from a less well-known angle: that of members of the Bahá'í Faith for whom the pursuit of racial justice, healing, and harmony are central to their religious expression. Inside these pages, readers will find history, social scientific analysis, and personal memoir showcasing Black Bahá'is as well as Bahá'is from diverse backgrounds who are working to address America's most challenging issue. Andrew Marvell, Sexual Orientation, and Seventeenth-Century Poetry George Klawitter, 2017-09-01 Andrew Marvell: Sexual Orientation and Seventeenth-Century Poetry examines the important Interregnum/Restoration poet Andrew Marvell against a background of his contemporary lyric poets. His major works, from the early elegies to the later political pieces, are discussed with a view to unmasking the poet's own sexuality and his reflection of prevailing sexual attitudes. Popular poems like the Mower poems and The Nymph Complaining for the Death of her Fawn are explicated in depth, as well as lesser-known poems like The Unfortunate Lover and The Gallery. Marvell often described as a chameleon has teased readers for hundreds of years This new book will help both new readers as well as established Marvellians to understand cryptic sexual meanings and references in the verses Poems are explicated against current heteronormative theory as well as recent work on homoeroticism autoeroticism and celibacy George Klawitter has devoted much of his recent scholarly life to a study of Marvell's lyric pieces and brings to this new book fresh insights into the suggestive intent of the poet's works
