

Sonnet 138

When my love swears that she is made of truth	A
I do believe her, though I know she lies,	B
That she might think me some untutor'd youth,	A
Unlearned in the world's false subtleties.	B
Thus vainly thinking that she thinks me young,	C
Although she knows my days are past the best,	D
Simply I credit her false speaking tongue:	C
On both sides thus is simple truth suppress'd.	D
But wherefore says she not she is unjust?	E
And wherefore say not I that I am old?	F
O, love's best habit is in seeming trust,	E
And age in love loves not to have years told:	F
Therefore I lie with her and she with me,	G
And in our faults by lies we flatter'd be.	G
