THE ETHICS OF DISAGREEMENT IN ISLAM DR. Khalida Majid,2023-11-08 The Muslims at present is divided into sects and schools of thought The disagreements among the Muslims have assumed tremendous significance and the lack of ethics of disagreement have resulted in an apparently unbridgeable gap between different sections of the Muslim society This book is a humble attempt to bring to the lime light the legacy of ethics of disagreement in Islam in a historical and most dispassionate manner This book focuses primarily about the spectrum of disagreement analyzes the meaning and nature of Disagreement It also provides historical study of ethics of Disagreement and an account of how medieval Muslims came to a consensus about how to deal with disagreement how they created an educational system that reflected that consensus and how we might understand current Islamic issues in the light of the medieval Islamic understanding of disagreement Most importantly this book deals with the Amin Ahsan Isla hi s analysis of Ethics of Disagreement in Islam and the views of Taha Jabir al Alwa ni on Ethics of Disagreement in Islam This would surely help us to derive provisions for our contemporary times and the future generation
