The Distributed Functions of Emergency Management and Homeland Security David A. McEntire, 2023-07-19 The Distributed Functions of Emergency Management and Homeland Security outlines the roles and responsibilities of various individuals and agencies involved in homeland security and all aspects of emergency management Each chapter focuses on the practical and applied aspects of a range of public servants in various departments and the organizations that they represent Rather than presenting a theoretical exploration alone the book examines the practical knowledge and hands on skills related to various functions and how their decisions and actions play into the larger framework of safety and security in the public private and nonprofit sectors Every professional has a unique and integral part to play in fulfilling their roles and obligations whether it be in relation to prevention mitigation preparedness response or recovery operations Personnel that frequently come to mind in such scenarios include emergency managers geographers and land use planners EMTs and paramedics fire fighters police officers public health officials nurses public administrators and public information officers And while these individuals are integral to homeland security and emergency management there are other professionals that also perform essential duties that while they aren t first to mind are vital to efforts relating to terrorism and disasters this includes pilots in the aviation sector the military attorneys psychologists and forensic professionals serving in pathology DNA and dentistry roles Chapters provide a holistic rendering of the homeland security and emergency management landscape to present all these various professional capabilities and contributions This includes how current functions are coordinated as well as how future efforts might change relative to a more proactive all hazards and holistic approach As such the book will be a useful resource for students and practitioners to understand the dynamic professions and various disciplines and fields that impact disaster and terrorism preparedness and response capabilities
