Orality, Literacy, and Colonialism in Southern Africa Jonathan A. Draper, 2004-01-01 Literacy is essentially about the control of information memory and belief and with colonialism in Southern Africa came the Bible and text based literacy monitored by missionaries and colonial authorities Old and new oral traditions however are beyond the control of empire and often carry the resistance hopes and dreams of colonized people The essays in this volume recover aspects of Southern Africa's rich oral tradition The authors from disciplines such as anthropology African literature and biblical studies delineate some of the contours of the indigenous knowledge systems which sustained resistance to colonialism and today provide resources for postapartheid society in Southern Africa Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org The Dvāravati Wheels of the Law and the Indianization of South East Asia Robert L. Brown, 2023-12-28

This volume deals with a unique group of stone sculptures representations of the Buddha's Wheel of the Law found in present day Thailand that date from about the seventh eighth centuries CE The book places these sculptures in their historical religious and art historical contexts to determine what they meant to the culture called Dvāravat that produced them Thus other art historical material associated with the Wheels including stone deer Buddha images and stupas are discussed Of greatest importance is how these sculptures relate to both the art in Cambodia and that in India and to determine what these relationships can tell us about the process called Indianization by which Indian culture religion and art were adapted in Southeast Asia Exploration of the South Seas in the Eighteenth Century: Rediscovered Accounts, Volume II Sandhya Patel, 2016-12-08 The publication of key voyaging manuscripts has contributed to the flourishing of enduring and prolific worldwide scholarship across numerous fields These navigators and their texts were instrumental in spurring on further exploration annexation and ultimately colonisation of the Pacific territories in the space of only a few decades This series will present new sources and primary texts in English paving the way for postcolonial critical approaches in which the reporting writing rewriting and translating of Empire and the Other takes precedence over the safeguarding of master narratives Each of the volumes contains an introduction that sets out the context in which these voyages took place and extensive annotations clarify and explain the original texts The translated accounts of voyages undertaken by foreign vessels abounded in an era when they encouraged not only competitive geopolitical initiatives but also commercial enterprises throughout Europe resulting in a voluminous textual corpus However French merchant seaman Etienne Marchand's journal of his voyage round the world in 1790-1792 encompassing an important visit to the Marquesas Archipelago during his first crossing of the Pacific remained unpublished until 2005 and has only now been made available in English The second volume of this series comprises an annotated translation in English of this document *The Joseph M. H. Lawrence Warren Roberts, Paul Poplawski, 2001-04-19 This pre eminent bibliography for D H Lawrence was extensively revised updated and expanded by Paul Poplawski for publication in 2001 Shamanism and Vulnerability on the North and South American Great Plains Kathleen Bolling Lowrey, 2020-12-01 In Shamanism and Vulnerability on the North and South American Great Plains Kathleen Bolling Lowrey provides an innovative and expansive study of indigenous shamanism and the ways in which it has been misinterpreted and dismissed by white settlers NGO workers policymakers government administrators and historians and anthropologists Employing a wide range of theory on masculinity disability dependence domesticity and popular children s literature Lowrey examines the parallels between the cultures and societies of the South American Gran Chaco and those of the North American Great Plains and outlines the kinds of relations that invite suspicion and scrutiny in divergent contexts in the Americas power and autonomy in the case of Amerindian societies and weakness and dependence in the case of settler societies She also demonstrates that where stigmatized or repressed in practice dependence and power manifest and intersect in unexpected ways in storytelling fantasy and myth The book reveals the various ways in which anthropologists historians folklorists and other writers have often misrepresented indigenous shamanism and revitalization movements by unconsciously projecting ideologies and assumptions derived from modern contract societies onto ethnographic and historical realities Lowrey also provides alternative ways of understanding indigenous American communities and their long histories of interethnic relations with expanding colonial and national states in the Americas A creative historical and ethnographical reevaluation of the last few decades of scholarship on shamanism disability and dependence Shamanism and Vulnerability on the North and South American Great Plains will be of interest to scholars of North and South American anthropology indigenous history American studies and feminism Flight & the Aircraft Engineer ,1917 Handbook of Local Anesthesia, 7e: South Asia Edition-E-book Stanley F. Malamed,2019-08-27 Handbook of Local Anesthesia 7e South Asia Edition E book Demonology and Devil-Lore Revised Moncure Daniel Conway,2019-09-18 An in depth look at demonology throughout western history that includes a good deal of Biblical and Middle Eastern references and mythology Many works from ancient Babylon Greek tragedies and the epic play Faust are used to form together a tangible history of demons in the present day Although many conclusions can logically be found to be erroneous the author makes a good attempt to bring together different lines of thought into one cohesive argument Now in larger print Travels and Adventures in Southern Africa George Thompson,1827 Exploration of the South Seas in the Eighteenth Century Sandhya Patel,2021-03-04 The publication of key voyaging manuscripts has contributed to the flourishing of enduring and prolific worldwide scholarship across numerous fields These navigators and their texts were instrumental in spurring on further exploration annexation and ultimately colonisation of the Pacific territories in the space of only a few decades This series will present new sources and primary texts in English paving the way for postcolonial critical approaches in which the reporting writing rewriting and translating of Empire and the Other takes precedence over the safeguarding of master narratives Each of the volumes contains an introduction that sets out the context in which these voyages took place and extensive annotations clarify and explain the original texts The first volume makes available Samuel Wallis logs of the Dolphin s voyage 1766 68 in their original form for the first time Captain Samuel Wallis was the first Englishman to come across the Tuamotus and the Society Isles in the South Pacific specifically Tahiti His writings predate the available textual sources by Louis Antoine de Bougainville the log of the Spanish voyages and James Cook whose text Wallis prefigures The three logs attest to the very first encounter between Europeans and Tahitians but until now comparatively little research has been conducted on the more elaborate second volume and none on the first The Polynesian

archipelagos grew into objects of discourse over the years and Wallis logs may very well be located at the heart of these evocative constructs The translated accounts of voyages undertaken by foreign vessels abounded in an era when they encouraged not only competitive geopolitical initiatives but also commercial enterprises throughout Europe resulting in a voluminous textual corpus However French merchant seaman Etienne Marchand's journal of his voyage round the world in 1790-1792 encompassing an important visit to the Marquesas Archipelago during his first crossing of the Pacific remained unpublished until 2005 and has only now been made available in English The second volume of this series comprises an annotated translation in English of this document

The Short Story in South Africa Rebecca Fasselt, Corinne Sandwith, 2022-03-24 This book considers the key critical interventions on short story writing in South Africa written in English since the year 2000 The short story genre whilst often marginalised in national literary canons has been central to the trajectory of literary history in South Africa In recent years the short story has undergone a significant renaissance with new collections and young writers making a significant impact on the contemporary literary scene and subgenres such as speculative fiction erotic fiction flash fiction and queer fiction expanding rapidly in popularity This book examines the role of the short story genre in reflecting or championing new developments in South African writing and the ways in which traditional boundaries and definitions of the short story in South Africa have been reimaged in the present Drawing together a range of critical interventions including scholarly articles interviews and personal reflective pieces the volume traces some of the aesthetic and thematic continuities and discontinuities in the genre and sheds new light on questions of literary form Finally the book considers the place of the short story in twenty first century writing and interrogates the ways in which the short story form may contribute to or recast ideas of the post apartheid or post transitional The perfect guide to contemporary short story writing in South Africa this book will be essential reading for researchers of African literature

Global South Modernities Gorica Majstorovic, 2020-09-10 Global South Modernities Modernist Literature and the Avant Garde in Latin America examines the seminal influence that Latin American writers had on the style subject matter and ideology of literature in the Global South from 1900 to the late 1930s Gorica Majstorovic challenges the historical and racial logic of interwar Latin American literary studies by introducing the solidarity relations between the global decolonial movements and placing anti imperialism Blackness and indigeneity at the center of decolonial analysis Following Mignolo de Sousa Santos and Cheah the texts under analysis subvert the processes of European colonial worlding and show modernity itself as pluralized Drawing on these works Majstorovic bridges the gap between aesthetics and politics while shifting the focus onto the Latin American transnational modernist networks and situating the analysis within the theoretical frameworks of the Global South While examining the idea of globality through its different conceptualizations cosmopolitanism immigration and travel Majstorovic analyzes avant garde magazines of the 1920s Mexican petrofiction urban proletarian and decolonial travel narratives of the 1930s calling into question modernism's usual framing as an Anglo American interwar phenomenon Majstorovic constructs a new genealogy of Latin American literature by examining the asymmetrical relations within its multiple modernities and offers a new understanding of Latin American interwar literature through the lens of the Global South
