Aesthetic Appreciation in Decorative Band Patterns Marius Machiel Hardonk,1999 In aesthetics it is generally assumed that preferences depend on culture and personality Although cultural and personal preferences can indeed differ to a large extent there is also a significant shared preference independent of culture and personality Investigation to what extent properties of aesthetic objects are independent of culture To this purpose decorative band patterns from cultures all over the world and throughout history are compared There might be some universal aesthetic preferences of the designers of the patterns and their customers Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ... Catalog of Books ,1996 The West in the World,

Volume I: To 1715 Dennis Sherman,Joyce Salisbury,2007-12-06 The West in the World relates the story of how the west has transformed and been transformed by the rest of the world The authors examine the West s contributions to the world and how the west has changed and embraced new ideas through contact with the people outside its center Using a political cultural framework the text weaves a strong thread of social history into the narrative by showing how civilizations grow and are shaped through the decisions and actions of real people The authors bring history to life by using art and maps as a central feature of learning They build discussions of art into the narrative to help students interpret artwork and provide analytical map guides that reveal the connections between geography politics and other developments This strong rich narrative is short enough to allow instructors the flexibility of introducing other sources and books as supplement while giving students a solid understanding of Western Civilization without overwhelming them Perspectives on History

,2009 Iberian Colonies, New World Societies Richard L. Garner,1985 Expansion and Global Interaction,

1200-1700 David R. Ringrose,2001 A new entry in the Longman World History Series this volume is a perfect supplement to a

World History or Western Civilization course as well as introductory courses on Asia Africa or Latin America Each book in the Longman World History Series edited by Michael Adas focuses on a prominent theme process or pattern in global history and treats the topic in a cross cultural and comparative manner In Expansion and Global Interaction 1200 1700 David Ringrose an established historian of Spain and the Spanish empire explores the dynamism that arose everywhere in the world after 1200 and shows how a series of autonomous societies became interdependent on a global scale by 1700 By examining the five major arenas of conflict ranging from Imperial China to the Aztec and Inca Empires he illustrates how political cultural and economic zones of influence expanded and overlapped The author concludes with the observation that by 1700 Europeans were influential across the globe but were not yet dominant in more than a few areas and as of 1700 their power in the nineteenth century would have been hard to predict The Human Record: Since 1500 Alfred J. Andrea,James H. Overfield,1990 Emotions in Europe, 1517-1914 Katie Barclay,François Soyer,2021-07-27 This volume of primary sources focuses on the history of emotions in Europe and its empires between 1517 and 1602 The Reformation in 1517 was a key transformative moment in European history that required people to rethink the self belief and scientific knowledges all of which shaped and were shaped by emotion The study examines the subjects of the self family and community religion politics and law science and philosophy and art and culture Sources include letters diaries legal papers institutional records newspapers science and philosophical writings literature and art from a diversity of voices and perspectives Accompanied by extensive editorial commentary this collection will be of great interest to students of history and literature The Human Record: To 1700 Alfred J. Andrea,James H. Overfield,1990
