The Palgrave Handbook of Globalization with Chinese Characteristics Paulo Afonso B. Duarte, Francisco José B. S. Leandro, Enrique Martínez Galán, 2023-01-07 This handbook offers readers various perspectives on globalization and multilateralism with Chinese characteristics Its originality is derived from the hybrid approaches the handbook takes where chapters provide complementary intertwined and multi level analysis on the topic Based on contributions of scholars and practitioners from a number of countries the handbook helps readers to comprehend ongoing debates on the Belt and Road Initiative and global governance within a shifting balance of world power characterized by competing views between Western and Chinese norms standards values and narratives Split into three Parts and consisting of 46 chapters the handbook views globalization as comprehensive concept that benefits from the contributions of various disciplines such as geography geo economics political science and international relations In producing one of the most ambitious and updated outputs on the topic the handbook as a whole seeks to discuss what globalization with Chinese characteristics looks like and the role of the Belt and Road Initiative in this process The Sale Catalogues of British Government Publications, 1836-1921: 1836-1889 Great Britain.
