Southeastern Geographer David M. Cochran Jr., Carl A. Reese, 2014-12-19 Southeastern Geographer is published by UNC Press for the Southeastern Division of the Association of American Geographers www.sedaag.org The quarterly journal publishes the academic work of geographers and other social and physical scientists and features peer reviewed articles and essays that reflect sound scholarship and contain significant contributions to geographical understanding with a special interest in work that focuses on the southeastern United States Political Geography Colin Flint, Peter J.

Taylor, 2025-04-04 The new and updated eighth edition of Political Geography once again shows itself fit to tackle a frequently and rapidly changing geopolitical landscape It retains the intellectual clarity rigour and vision of previous editions based upon its world systems approach and is complemented by the perspective of feminist geography The book successfully integrates the complexity of individuals with the complexity of the world economy by merging the compatible but different research agendas of the co authors This edition explores political geography within the context of US China competition Russia's war with Ukraine global climate change new technologies and challenges to democracy It advances the discussion from the previous editions on the dynamics of the capitalist world economy and the constant tension between the global scale of economic processes and the territorialization of politics in the current context of geopolitical change The chapters have been updated with new examples new sections on global climate change populism and the growing threat of global war The book offers a framework to help students make their own judgements of how we got where we are today and what may or should be done about it Political Geography remains a core text for students of political geography geopolitics international relations and political science as well as more broadly across human geography and the social sciences Getting Real

About Race Stephanie M. McClure, Cherise A. Harris, 2017-08-24 Getting Real About Race is an edited collection of short essays that address the most common stereotypes and misconceptions about race held by students and by many in the United States in general At the Threshold of Liberty Tamika Y. Nunley, 2021-01-29 The capital city of a nation founded on the premise of liberty nineteenth century Washington D C was both an entrep t of urban slavery and the target of abolitionist ferment The growing slave trade and the enactment of Black codes placed the city's Black women within the rigid confines of a social hierarchy ordered by race and gender At the Threshold of Liberty reveals how these women enslaved fugitive and free imagined new identities and lives beyond the oppressive restrictions intended to prevent them from ever experiencing liberty self respect and power Consulting newspapers government documents letters abolitionist records legislation and memoirs Tamika Y Nunley traces how Black women navigated social and legal proscriptions to develop their own ideas about liberty as they escaped from slavery initiated freedom suits created entrepreneurial economies pursued education and participated in political work In telling these stories Nunley places Black women at the vanguard of the history of Washington D C and the momentous transformations of nineteenth century America Learning Disobedience Amber Murrey, Prof.

Patricia Daley, 2023-08-20 This is a must read for current struggles for dignity and pluriversal decolonized solidarity The authors invite us to abolish development not as simple rejection but as a life affirming pathway into liberation and freedom beyond coloniality Rosalba Icaza Professor Erasmus University of Rotterdam Murrey and Daley take no prisoners in their sharp decolonial analysis Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni author of Beyond the Coloniality of Internationalism The book we've all been waiting for to divest from development studies It engages the abolitionist imperative as intelligible and doable as a labour of love solidarity and abundance Olivia Umurerwa Rutazibwa Assistant Professor London School of Economics and Political Science This is a book about teaching with disobedient pedagogies from the heart of empire The authors show how educators activists and students are cultivating anti racist decolonial practices leading with a radical call to eradicate development studies and counterbalancing this with new projects to decolonize development particularly in African geographies Building on the works of other decolonial trailblazers the authors show how colonial legacies continue to shape the ways in which land well being progress and development are conceived of and practiced How do we through our classroom and activist practices work collaboratively to create the radical imaginaries and practical scaffolding we need for decolonizing development Being intentionally disobedient in the classroom is central to decolonizing development studies Amber Murrey is an Associate Professor at the University of Oxford and a Fellow at Mansfield College Oxford Amber is the editor of A Certain Amount of Madness The Life Politics and Legacies of Thomas Sankara Patricia Daley is Professor of the Human Geography of Africa and The Helen Morag Fellow in Geography at Jesus College Oxford She co edited with Elena Fiddian Qasmiyeh The Routledge Handbook on South South Relations

Social Memory and Heritage Tourism

Methodologies Stephen P. Hanna, Amy E. Potter, E. Arnold Modlin, Perry Carter, David L. Butler, 2015-02-11 The examination of social memory and heritage tourism has grown considerably over the past few decades as scholars have critically re examined the relationships between past memories and present actions at international national and local scales Methodological innovation and reflection have accompanied theoretical advances as researchers strive to understand representations experiences thoughts emotions and identities of the various actors involved in the reproduction of social memory and heritage landscapes Social Memory and Heritage Tourism Methodologies describes and demonstrates innovations including qualitative quantitative and mixed method approaches for analysing the process and politics of remembering and touring the past through place An introductory chapter looks at the history of social memory and heritage tourism research and the particular challenges posed by these fields of study In subsequent chapters the reader is led through the varying methodologies employed by presenting them in the context of an in depth case study from range of geographical locations The resulting volume showcases innovative research in social memory and heritage tourism and provides the reader with insights into how they can successfully conduct their own research while avoiding common pitfalls This title will be useful reading for scholars professionals and students in tourism geography anthropology and museum studies who are preparing to conduct research on the reproduction of social memory in particular landscapes and places or are interested in investigating heritage tourism practices and representations Fire Dreams Laura McTighe, 2024-01-22 For thirty five years the New Orleans based Black feminist collective Women With A Vision WWAV has fought for the liberation of their communities through reproductive justice harm reduction abolition feminism racial justice and sex workers rights In 2012 shortly after one of WWAV's biggest organizing victories arsonists firebombed and destroyed their headquarters Fire Dreams is an innovative collaboration between WWAV and Laura McTighe who work in community to build a social movement ethnography of the organization's post arson rebirth Rooting WWAV in the geography of the South and the living history of generations of Black feminist thinkers McTighe and WWAV weave together stories from their founders pioneering work during the Black HIV AIDS crisis in the 1980s and their groundbreaking organizing to end criminalization in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina with other movements for liberation as accomplices Together the authors refuse the logics of racial capitalism and share WWAV's own world building knowledges as well as their methods for living these Black feminist futures now Fire Dreams is a vital toolkit for grassroots organizers activist scholars and all those who dream to make the world otherwise Routledge Handbook of the Sociology of Sport Richard

Teachable Monuments Sierra Rooney, Jennifer Wingate, Harriet F. Senie, 2021-03-11 Monuments around the world have become the focus of intense and

sustained discussions activism vandalism and removal Since the convulsive events of 2015 and 2017 during which white supremacists committed violence in the shadow of Confederate symbols and the 2020 nationwide protests against racism and police brutality protesters and politicians in the United States have removed Confederate monuments as well as monuments to historical figures like Christopher Columbus and Dr J Marion Sims questioning their legitimacy as present day heroes that their place in the public sphere reinforces The essays included in this anthology offer guidelines and case studies tailored for students and teachers to demonstrate how monuments can be used to deepen civic and historical engagement and social dialogue Essays analyze specific controversies throughout North America with various outcomes as well as examples of monuments that convey outdated or unwelcome value systems without prompting debate Laying Claim Patricia G. Davis, 2016-08-15 Laying Claim African American Cultural Memory and Southern Identity explores the practices and cultural institutions that define and sustain African American southernness demonstrating that southern identity is more expansive than traditional narratives that center on white culture Critical Theories in Dark Tourism Nitasha Sharma, Annaclaudia Martini, Dallen J. Timothy, 2024-12-02 This book facilitates a critical investigation of gaps in theorizing and framing dark tourism by navigating through some onto epistemological issues theoretical entanglements future possibilities and the application of critical theoretical perspectives related to affect and emotions human animal studies postcolonialism feminism trauma studies posthumanism power and identity In doing so it advances the need to connect critical theory pragmatism and contemporary issues of social and global relevance Given the growing body of critical research within tourism studies dark tourism has somewhat lagged behind For example critical tourism researchers have been examining postcolonialism for two decades but dark tourism research has only sporadically engaged with this topic Similarly the issue of gender has been curiously neglected within dark tourism In addition dark tourism research has tended to shy away from the big challenges facing contemporary societies Through its engagement with a range of critical theories this volume not only addresses gaps in the existing dark tourism literature but also moves the debate forward in exciting new directions This volume is well placed to demonstrate to other disciplines and fields that dark tourism research can be critical theoretically grounded and transformative Duncan Light Styling Masculinity Kristen Barber, 2016-08-24 The twenty first century has seen the emergence of a new style of man the metrosexual Overwhelmingly straight white and wealthy these impeccably coiffed urban professionals spend big money on everything from facials to pedicures all part of a multi billion dollar male grooming industry Yet as this innovative study reveals even as the industry encourages men to invest more in their appearance it still relies on women to do much of the work Styling Masculinity investigates how men s beauty salons have persuaded their clientele to regard them as masculine spaces To answer this question sociologist Kristen Barber goes inside Adonis and The Executive two upscale men s salons in Southern California Conducting detailed observations and extensive interviews with both customers and employees she shows how female salon workers not only perform the physical labor of snipping tweezing waxing and exfoliating but also perform the emotional labor of pampering their clients and pumping up their masculine egos Letting salon employees tell their own stories Barber not only documents occasions when these workers are objectified and demeaned but also explores how their jobs allow for creativity and confer a degree of professional dignity In the process she traces the vast network of economic and social relations that undergird the burgeoning male beauty industry Transitional Justice and the Politics of Inscription Joseph Robinson, 2017-08-04 Taking Northern Ireland as its primary case study this book applies the burgeoning literature in memory studies to the primary question of transitional justice how shall societies and individuals reckon with a traumatic past Joseph Robinson argues that without understanding how memory shapes moulds and frames narratives of the past in the minds of communities and individuals theorists and practitioners may not be able to fully appreciate the complex emotive realities of transitional political landscapes Drawing on interviews with what the author terms memory curators coupled with a robust analysis of secondary literature from a range of transitional cases the book analyses how the bodies of the dead the injured and the traumatised are written into or written out of transitional justice The author argues that scholars cannot appreciate the dynamism of transitional memory space unless they first engage with the often silenced or marginalised voices whose memories remain trapped behind the antagonistic politics of fear and division Ultimately challenging the imperative of national reconciliation the author argues for a politics of public memory that incubates at multiple nodes of social production and can facilitate a vibrant democratic debate over the ways in which a traumatic past can or should be remembered Integration and Receptivity in Immigrant Gateway Metro

Regions in the United States Paul N. McDaniel, Darlene Xiomara Rodriguez, 2024-07-08 Despite the velocity and scale of the cumulative changes of immigrant integration and receptivity infrastructures in fast growing regions of the United States less research has focused on the new and evolving experiences in these regions in recent years Editors Paul N McDaniel and Darlene Xiomara Rodriguez and the contributors in Integration and Receptivity in Immigrant Gateway Metro Regions in the United States fill this gap through case studies of different types of immigrant gateway metro areas They provide insight into how immigrant settlement integration and receptivity processes and practices within each metro area have continued to evolve beyond the nascent experiences documented in the early 2000s This interdisciplinary volume examines ongoing processes in not only well established immigrant gateways but also in previously overlooked regions This book is a resource for researchers students and practitioners to contextualize the ongoing changes in new destination metropolitan regions in the United States and to learn from the challenges opportunities and best practices emerging from different metropolitan regional contexts Economic Development for Everyone Mark M. Miller, 2017-05-09 How do we create employment grow businesses and build greater economic resilience in our low income communities How do we create economic development for everyone everywhere including rural towns inner city neighborhoods aging suburbs and regions such as Appalachia American Indian reservations the Mexican border and the Mississippi Delta and not just in elite communities

Economic Development for Everyone collects organizes and reviews much of the current research available on creating economic development in low income communities Part I offers an overview of the harsh realities facing low income communities in the US today their many economic and social challenges debates on whether to try reviving local economies vs relocating residents and current trends in economic development that emphasize high tech industry and high levels of human capital Part II organizes the sprawling literature of applied economic development research into a practical framework of five dynamic dimensions empower your residents begin with basic education enhance your community build on existing assets encourage your entrepreneurs diversify your economy and sustain your development This book assembled and presented in a unified framework will be invaluable for students and new researchers of economic development in low income communities and will offer new perspectives for established researchers professional economic developers and planners and public officials Development practitioners and community leaders will also find new ideas and opportunities along with a broad view on how the many complex parts of economic development interconnect

The Middle of Somewhere Sara L. Hartman,Bob Klein,2023-07-11 Highlights innovative partnership practices that help create educational opportunities for students in rural schools across the United States As editors Sara L Hartman and Bob Klein acknowledge rural places have long experienced systemic inequities that decrease rural students access to education yet many rural schools and communities have found creative means to make up for the dearth of outside resources The Middle of Somewhere brings to light a wide variety of partnerships that have been forged between K 12 schools communities and postsecondary institutions to improve educational access The book showcases collaborations that address three different areas of need partnerships that prepare and support teacher candidates and educators who work in rural areas partnerships that extend the work of rural education networks and partnerships that promote equity justice and inclusion within rural populations Using case studies of rural educational partnerships from communities across the United States the book s contributors share their experiences of how strong partnerships have formed both organically and through thoughtful and intentional planning and they recommend supportive strategies for their development and sustainment The contributors also explore the many ways in which university school community partnerships incubate solutions to challenges common to rural education systems such as access to STEM education and higher education The programs featured here may serve as replicable models for practitioners researchers and policy makers who want to enrich the experiences of children in their schools and communities

The Black Geographic Camilla Hawthorne,Jovan Scott Lewis,2023-09-12 The contributors to The Black Geographic explore the theoretical innovations of Black Geographies scholarship and how it approaches Blackness as historically and spatially situated In studies that span from Oakland to the Alabama Black Belt to Senegal to Brazil the contributors draw on ethnography archival records digital humanities literary criticism and art to show how understanding the spatial dimensions of Black life contributes to a broader understanding of race and space They examine key sites of inquiry Black spatial imaginaries resistance to racial violence the geographies of racial capitalism and struggles over urban space Throughout the contributors demonstrate that Blackness is itself a situating and place making force even as it is shaped by spatial processes and diasporic routes Whether discussing eighteenth and nineteenth century abolitionist print records or migration and surveillance in Niger this volume demonstrates that Black Geographies is a mode of analyzing Blackness that fundamentally challenges the very foundations of the field of geography and its historical entwinement with colonialism enslavement and imperialism In short it marks a new step in the evolution of the field Contributors Anna Livia Brand C N E Corbin Lindsey Dillon Chiyuma Elliott Ampson Hagan Camilla Hawthorne Matthew Jordan Miller Kenyatta Jovan Scott Lewis Judith Madera Jordanna Matlon Solange Muñoz Diana Negrón Danielle Purifoy Sharita Towne
