Sustainable Ho Chi Minh City: Climate Policies for Emerging Mega Cities Antje Katzschner, Michael Waibel, Dirk Schwede, Lutz Katzschner, Michael Schmidt, Harry Storch, 2015-12-01 As climate change and urban development are closely interlinked and often interact negatively this edited volume takes Ho Chi Minh City HCMC Vietnam's first mega urban region as a case study to analyse its vulnerability to climate change and to suggest measures towards a more sustainable urban development The book offers an overview on land use planning regarding the aspects of urban flooding urban climate urban energy and urban mobility as well as spatial views from the angle of urban planning such as the metropolitan level the city the neighbourhood and building level It shows that to a significant degree measures dealing with climate change can be taken from the toolbox of sustainable urban development and reflects how institutional structures need to change to enhance chances for implementation given socio cultural and economic constraints This is merged and integrated into a holistic perspective of planning recommendations supporting the municipal government to increase its adaptive capacity The authors are members of a German government funded research project on how to support HCMC's municipal government to adapt to risks related to climate change

Urban Landscapes in High-Density Cities Bianca Maria Rinaldi, Puay Yok Tan, 2019-06-04 The positive effects of urban green spaces are well known ranging from the promotion of health support of biodiversity to climate regulation However the practical implementation of urban landscapes is less discussed How can we make these spaces functional economically feasible and inclusive especially as cities become more diverse The publication explores strategies to reconcile the various demands such as food production resilience and nature conservation Indeed urban landscapes have to be restorative ecological and aesthetically pleasing at the same time This is a particular challenge in high density cities like Singapore Seoul or New York where space is a scarce commodity The continuing growth of the worldwide urban population imbues the topic with a special urgency

The City Uwe Prell, 2022-09-05 In diesem Buch wird der aktuelle Stand der Stadtforschung in den relevanten Disziplinen verständlich dargestellt Der Autor bietet Einblicke in die Sichtweisen der wichtigsten Disziplinen die sich mit Stadt Thematiken beschäftigen wie Soziologie Geographie Raum und Stadtplanung Geschichte Philosophie und Politikwissenschaft Dabei berücksichtigt er auch die Sprachphilosophie und zeigt die unterschiedlichen Bedeutungen von stadtbezogenen Begriffen in einem Dutzend Wortsprachen auf Ein Überblick über die zentralen Ansätze und Theorien sowie deren praktische Anwendung ermöglicht es den Lesern und Leserinnen ein vertrautes Thema aus neuen Perspektiven zu betrachten

Megacities Steef Buijs, Wendy Wanyin Tan, Devisari Tunas, 2010 World cities are reaching previously inconceivable sizes and populations For the last fifteen years The Megacities Foundation has encouraged public debate on this development uniting practitioners from the fields of architecture economics geography sociology and urban planning This book offers a compilation of the Foundation's best lectures defining megacities and their processes and systems

Bioregional Planning and Design: Volume I David Fanfani, Alberto Matarán Ruiz, 2020-07-20 This book provides a review of the bioregionalist theory in the field of spatial planning and design as a suitable approach to cope with the growing concerns about the negative effects of metropolization processes and the need for a sustainable transition The book starts out with a section on rethinking places for community life and discusses the reframing of regional governance and development as well as social justice in spatial planning It introduces the concept of the urban bioregion a pivotal concept that underpins balanced polycentric spatial patterns and supports self-reliant and fair local development The second part of the book focuses on planning and particularly on the issues that arise from the circular recovery of the relation between city and agro ecosystems for integrated planning and resilience of settlements and discusses topics such as foodshed planning biophilic urbanism and the integration of rural development and spatial planning This volume sets out the reference framework for Volume II which deals with more specific and operational issues related to spatial policies and settlement design

Half the world's population is now urbanised and cities are assuming a larger role in debates about the security and sustainability of the global food system Hence planning for sustainable food production and consumption is becoming an increasingly important issue for planners policymakers designers farmers suppliers activists business and scientists alike The rapid growth of the food planning movement owes much to the unique multi functional character of food systems In the wider contexts of global climate change resource depletion a burgeoning world population competing food production systems and diet related public health concerns new paradigms for urban and regional planning capable of supporting sustainable and equitable food systems are urgently needed This book addresses this urgent need By working at a range of scales and with a variety of practical and theoretical models this book reviews and elaborates definitions of sustainable food systems and begins to define ways of achieving them Four different themes have been defined as entry points into the discussion of sustainable food planning These are 1 urban food governance 2 integrating health environment and society 3 urban agriculture 4 planning and design This is an important compilation on a timely topic It brings together the work of planners and designers from both sides of the Atlantic and challenges us to think about how to create food systems that deliver healthy just and sustainable communities and vital places The book moves dexterously between the grassroots and policy halls and draws valuable lessons for theory and practice Dr Kami Pothukuchi Department of Urban Studies Planning Wayne State University To address the problems of urban food production we need to look at the city in a completely different way This timely book will act as an important source for those who have an ethical interest not only in food but in improving the quality and justice of life in our city communities Prof Flora Samuel School of Architecture University of Sheffield and member of Royal Institute of British Architects Research and Development Committee This publication provides a lot of food for thought not just for persons professionally involved in the food sector and officials dealing with national food policies but especially for local and regional authorities urban planners and architects NGOs and community based organisations health and environmental officers and concerned consumers Against the background of the growing awareness of the elevated social health and ecological costs of the mainstream globalized agri food system this book analyses the emergence of a new vision and many initiatives that seek to reconnect sustainable production with sustainable consumption Hence the book delivers what is promised in its title it discusses new concepts related to food and sustainable urban regional planning based on a critical review of innovative practices at various levels Ir Henk de Zeeuw Director RUAF Foundation For those who work to address the future challenges facing city development this book is a must Why Because today practitioners and professionals are being asked to understand urban food production within a social economic and ecological context This book shows us how these connections are being made The chapters are accessible and fascinating and will help beginners and experts to deal with food production in their everyday work Dr Carlo W Becker bgmr Landscape Architects Berlin Leipzig and Technical Universit

The Routledge Handbook of Planning Megacities in the Global South

Deden Rukmana, 2020-06-04 Cities are now home to 55% of the world's population and that number is rising. Urban populations across the world will continue to grow, including in megacities with populations over ten million. In 2016 there were 31 megacities globally according to the United Nations World Cities Report, with 24 of those cities located in the Global South. That number is expected to rise to 41 by 2030, with all ten new megacities in the Global South, where the processes of urbanization are intrinsically distinct from those in the Global North. The Routledge Handbook of Planning Megacities in the Global South provides rigorous comparative analyses, discussing the challenges, processes, best practices, and initiatives of urbanization in Middle America, South America, the Middle East, Africa, South Asia, East Asia, and Southeast Asia. This book is indispensable reading for students and scholars of urban planning, and its significance as a resource will only continue to grow as urbanization reshapes the global population.

Manfred Schrenk, 2010 Routledge Handbook of Transport in Asia Junyi Zhang, Cheng-Min Feng, 2018-06-12 Asian transportation systems and services, as well as their usage, are fraught with challenges. This handbook therefore seeks to examine the possible solutions to the problems faced by the region. It illustrates the history of transportation development in Asia and provides a comprehensive overview of research on urban and intercity transport. Presenting an extensive literature review and detailed summaries of the major findings and methodologies, this book also offers suggestions for future research activities from top-level international researchers. Written from an interdisciplinary perspective, the topics covered include Transportation systems across Asia, Traffic accidents, Air pollution, Land use and logistics, Transport governance. Considering the population and economic development scale, as well as the diverse cultures of Asia, the Routledge Handbook of Transport in Asia will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of transportation, Asian development, and Asian Studies in general. Ekistics, 1998 Handbook of Quality of Life and Sustainability Javier Martinez, Claudia Andrea Mikkelsen, Rhonda Phillips, 2020-10-30 This handbook provides the latest research related to quality of life and sustainability, taking into account social, economic, environmental, and political governance aspects, as well as specific socio-spatial contexts. The volume includes contributions from established and upcoming scholars from various disciplines and geographical contexts. Global South and North: The varying cultural and socio-spatial contexts of the authors in the selected cases contribute to first-hand knowledge on the realities of sustainability issues affecting the quality of life. The authors apply a wide diversity of methods and tools, which facilitates a unique understanding of the interlinkages between quality of life and sustainability. The chapters are grouped in three main sections: concepts and foundations, tools, techniques, and applications, and innovations. The authors provide their own view and theoretical approximation of the dimensions of sustainability, in particular on how these dimensions play out in relation to quality of life.

The combination of sustainability and quality of life concepts and perspectives is particularly important in unravelling the multi faceted nature of human urban rural spatial development

Megacity Yangon Frauke Kraas,Hartmut Gaese,Mi Mi Kyi,2006 Megacities are new urban phenomena results of globalisation and subject to as well as motors of global ecological socio economic and political change New are the dimensions of growth concentrations of population infrastructure economic power and decisions and the simultaneous self energising acceleration processes of development But one must be wary of generalised statements since differences of economic performance social coherence infrastructure conditions and governance structures should not be ignored This publication aims at analysing current transformation processes of Yangon Myanmar as spearhead of national development bridge to Southeast Asia and the world

DIY Urbanism in Africa Stephen Marr,Patience Mususa,2023-11-02 Protracted economic crises accelerating inequalities and increased resource scarcity present significant challenges for the majority of Africa s urban population Limited state capacity and widespread infrastructure deficiencies common in cities across the continent often require residents to draw on their own resources knowledge and expertise to resolve these life and livelihood dilemmas DIY Urbanism in Africa investigates these practices It develops a theoretical framework through which to analyze them and it presents a series of case studies to demonstrate how residents invent new DIY tactics and strategies in response to security place making or economic problems This book offers a timely critical intervention into literatures on urban development and politics in Africa It is valuable to students policymakers and urban practitioners keen to understand the mechanisms and political implications of widespread dynamics now shaping Africa s expanding urban environments

Urban Change in Iran Fatemeh Farnaz Arefian,Seyed Hossein Iradj Moeini,2015-12-18 This book based on conference excerpts investigates various aspects of contemporary Iranian urbanism The topics covered range from the impacts of political developments on the cities rapid socio economic developments to the cities troubled relationship with the country s built environment history and their frequently ill managed exposure to Western notions of development and globalisation Last but not least the country s vulnerability to natural disasters in an age of increasing urban population densification is also considered Alongside more theoretically and artistically oriented debates the book s individual contributions turn their attention to the now much higher proportion of urban dwellers in the country s rising population It also discusses the policies designed in response to these demographic moves including those to develop new towns find housing for the excess population in existing cities renovate historic buildings and create new public spaces The practice policy oriented contributions also include those concerning the country s responses to natural disasters
