St Joseph Catholic School Advisory Board:

St. Joseph's College Kenneth Munro, 2015-12-02 When Archbishop Henry O Leary became the second archbishop of Edmonton in 1920 he had a dream to build a western Canada Catholic college that would educate students in the Christian intellectual tradition This is the story of how a small Roman Catholic institution confronted daunting challenges to become a Christian beacon of enlightenment at the very heart of the secular University of Alberta Scholarship and community life in residence was always supplemented with teaching from the Christian Ministry Team to form Christian citizens who would go out into the world to serve the larger community following graduation In 1963 the Congregation of St Basil took over the administration of the College from the Christian Brothers de la Salle who had administered the College from its founding in 1926 Since its establishment almost ninety years ago the College has continued to provide young men and women with post secondary courses grounded in Roman Catholic thought while pursuing their undergraduate degrees at the University of Alberta Initially a residence was built for men but O Leary s dream of also constructing a women s residence never died and was finally realized in 2015 Faced with slender means misunderstandings student mischief and personality clashes the mission of St Joseph s College has guided faculty administrators staff and Board members throughout its history and melded them into a close knit community whose example is the envy of other units at the University of Alberta

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1998 Fresh Pond Jill Sinclair, 2009-02-13 The history of Fresh Pond Reservation onetime summer retreat for wealthy Bostonians center of the nineteenth century ice industry and stomping grounds for Harvard students told through photographs maps and plans and stories Fresh Pond Reservation at the northwest edge of Cambridge Massachusetts has been described as a landscape loved to death Certainly it is a landscape that has been changed by its various uses over the years and one to which Cantabridgeans and Bostonians have felt an intense attachment Henry James returned to it in his sixties looking for some echo of the dreams of youth feeling keenly the pleasure of memory a Harvard student of the 1850s fondly remembered skating parties and the chance of flirtation with some fair ankled beauty of breezy Boston modern residents argue fiercely over dogs being allowed to run free at the reservation and whether soccer or nature is a more valuable experience for Cambridge schoolchildren In Fresh Pond Jill Sinclair tells the story of the pond and its surrounding land through photographs drawings maps plans and an engaging narrative of the pond s geological historical and political ecology Fresh Pond has been a Native American hunting and fishing ground the site of an eighteenth century hotel offering bowling food and wine and impromptu performances by Harvard men a summer retreat for wealthy Bostonians a training ground for trench warfare a location for picnics and festivals for workers and sporting activities for all The parkland features an Olmsted design albeit an imperfectly realized one The pond itself a natural lake carved out by the retreating Ice Age about 15 000 years ago was a center of the nineteenth century ice industry disparaged by Thoreau writing about another pond and still supplies the city of Cambridge with fresh drinking water Sinclair s celebration of a local landscape also alerts us to broader issues shifts in public attitudes toward nature is it brutal wilderness or in need of protection and water precious commodity or limitless flow that resonate as we remake our relationship to the landscape

Technology and the Dream Clarence G. Williams,2003-02-28 Transcripts of more than seventy five oral history interviews in which the interviewees assess their MIT experience and reflect on the role of blacks at MIT and beyond This book grew out of the Blacks at MIT History Project whose mission is to document the black presence at MIT The main body of the text consists of transcripts of more than seventy five oral history interviews in which the interviewees assess their MIT experience and reflect on the role of blacks at MIT and beyond Although most of the interviewees are present or former students black faculty administrators and staff are also represented as are nonblack faculty and administrators who have had an impact on blacks at MIT The interviewees were selected with an eye to presenting the broadest range of issues and personalities as well as a representative cross section by time period and category Each interviewee was asked to discuss family background education role models and mentors experiences of racism and race related issues choice of field and career goals adjustment to the MIT environment best and worst MIT experiences experience with MIT support services relationships with MIT students faculty and staff advice to present or potential MIT students and advice to the MIT administration A recurrent theme is that MIT's rigorous teaching instills the confidence to deal with just about any hurdle in professional life and that an MIT degree opens many doors and supplies instant credibility Each interview includes biographical notes and pictures The book also includes a general introduction a glossary and appendixes describing the project's methodology
