GO TO 2040 supports the efforts of local governments to improve livability within their communities and to encourage a future pattern of more compact, mixed-use development that focuses growth where transportation infrastructure already exists. The plan recommends that local governments pursue opportunities for development of this type, while recognizing that the interpretation and application of these concepts will vary by community.

Local Technical Assistance (LTA) Program

Project Manager: Bob Dean, Jason Navota

Team: Entire Local Planning staff, also Dryla-Gaca, Pedersen, Prasse

Description: The Local Technical Assistance (LTA) program involves working directly with a community or group of communities on a product that is customized for their use. These projects have a specific audience and are geographically limited. New projects are added to the LTA program each October. This work plan item includes several components: program administration; project management; outreach and engagement; and data analysis.

Program administration includes overall administration and tracking of progress of the LTA program, including monthly reports on project progress and quarterly reviews of staff time expectations and contract expenditures. It also includes the annual LTA call for projects and project selection, with close coordination with the Regional Transportation Authority and other stakeholders and partners. Following project selection and subsequent CMAP board approval, many LTA projects require further scoping to determine the most appropriate CMAP role. Before startup, LTA projects include meetings with project sponsors and key local stakeholders, research on relevant past activities in each community, and preparation of a proposed scope of work. Internal and external coordination of the program, including alignment with policy and programming priorities, is also part of program administration.

Project management is conducted by a project manager who is responsible for the timely completion of the project. Project managers are responsible for conducting a large portion of the work required on their projects, as well as identifying needs for additional project support, outreach assistance, and partner coordination. Project management involves preparation and review of interim and final materials, including maintaining a high standard of quality for all documents produced.

Outreach and engagement through an inclusive public engagement processes is part of each LTA project undertaken. This component includes the development and implementation of a public engagement process as part of each project, as well as media and legislative outreach during and after each LTA project.

SEC Docket United States. Securities and Exchange Commission,2008      Staff Report Concerning Examinations of Select Pension Consultants United States. Securities and Exchange Commission. Office of Compliance Inspections and Examinations,2005      Private Pensions: Conflicts of Interest Can Affect Defined Benefit and Defined Contribution Plans Charles A. Jeszeck,2009-06 An analysis of available data on pension consultants and plans revealed a statistical association between inadequate disclosure and lower investment returns for ongoing plans suggesting the possible adverse financial effect of such nondisclosure The econometric analysis detected lower annual rates of return for those ongoing plans associated with consultants that had failed to disclose significant conflicts of interest These lower rates ranged from a statistically significant 1 2 1 3 % points over the 2000 04 period The avg returns for ongoing plans that used consultants who failed to disclose significant conflicts was 3 2 3 3% for the period This finding suggests the importance of detecting the presence of conflicts among pension plan consultants Illus      Private pensions increased reliance on 401(k) plans calls for better information on fees : testimony ,      Private Pensions: Information That Sponsors and Participants need to Understand 401(k) Plan Fees ,2007      Private Pensions Barbara D. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means,2009      Money for Nothing John Gillespie,David Zweig,2010-01-12 A Bank of America director questioned the CEO s 76 million pay package in a year when the bank was laying off 12 600 workers and found herself dropped from the board without notice a few months later According to their employment agreements approved by boards 96 percent of large company CEOs have guarantees that do not allow them to be fired for cause for unsatisfactory performance which means they can walk away with huge payouts and 49 percent cannot be fired even for breaking the law by failing in their fiduciary duties to shareholders The General Motors board gave CEO Rick Wagoner a 64 percent pay raise to 15 7 million in 2007 when the company lost 38 7 billion The company went bankrupt two years later at a cost of 52 billion to shareholders and another 13.4 billion to all taxpayers. If you own stock and 57 million U.S. households do, every cent of these outrages comes out of your pocket thanks to boards of directors who are supposed to represent your interests. Every customer, employee, and taxpayer is also being hurt, and American business is being imperiled. In the most recent economic collapse, almost all attention has focused on the greed, recklessness, or incompetence of CEOs rather than the negligence of boards who ought to be held equally if not more accountable because the CEOs theoretically work for them. But the world of boards has become an entrenched insiders' club, virtually free of accountability or personal liability. Too often corporate boards act as enabling lapdogs rather than trustworthy watchdogs, costing us trillions of dollars. Money for Nothing exposes the glaring flaws in this dysfunctional system, including directors who are selected by the CEOs they are meant to hold accountable, compensation consultants who legitimize outrageous pay, accountants and attorneys who see no evil, legal vote buying, rampant conflicts of interest, and much more. Using their extensive original reporting and interviews with high-level insiders, John Gillespie and David Zweig, both Harvard MBAs with thirty-plus years of Fortune 100 experience at investment banks and media companies, expose what happened or failed to happen in the boardrooms of companies such as Lehman Brothers, General Motors, Bear Stearns, and Countrywide, and how it has resulted in so much financial devastation. They reveal how the byzantine yet indestructible web of power and money has brought on collapse after collapse with fig-leaf reforms that feebly anticipate last year's scandal but never next year's. Money for Nothing shows how the game is played and how you can help to demand real change in a badly broken system.

The New Capitalists Stephen Davis, Jon Lukomnik, David Pitt-Watson, 2006-11-01 Thanks to the rise of mutual funds and retirement plans, the actual owners of the world's corporate giants are no longer a few wealthy families. Rather, they're the huge majority of working people who have their pensions and life savings invested in shares of today's largest companies. These grassroots owners have ideas about value that differ from those of tycoons or Wall Street traders. And corporate directors and executives are coming under increasing pressure to respond. The New Capitalists provides examples from GE to Disney to British Petroleum of enterprises whose shareholders have recently wielded their control in ways unimaginable just several years ago. Authors Stephen Davis, Jon Lukomnik, and David Pitt-Watson describe how civil ownership will profoundly alter our world, including forcing the rise of a new species of corporation. It has already begun demolishing old rules and habits, laying the groundwork for a new constitution of commerce. The authors spell out conventional thinking destined for extinction and fresh strategies companies must implement to survive in the emerging civil economy. They also outline how investors, advisors, activists, and policy makers can make their voices heard.

Fiduciary Finance Martin Gold,2010 This multi faceted analysis of institutional investment defines fiduciary finance institutions as the third pillar of the financial system alongside banks and insurers It documents the role played by investment funds and the money management industry during the recent financial crisis and provides an unashamedly critical review of the business disciplines which can dominate investment practices It clarifies the economic significance of the investment industry circa 60 trillion in assets and the features which differentiate fiduciary finance from traditional financial institutions such as banks and insurers Martin Gold reviews the intellectual foundations of the investment discipline and synthesizes the literature into the principal scientific paradigms He explores the legal frameworks prudential investment standards that govern mainstream portfolio management practices which combined with the commercial imperatives of the investment industry can create marked differences from textbook depictions of investment management Recent events have again called into question the worth of the now ubiquitous collective investments such as pension funds and mutual funds and the integrity of the financial markets Given the trillions of government funds which have been committed to financial bailouts and the volatility experienced by investors the author asserts that a critical analysis of fiduciary finance must question whether better outcomes can be achieved Tellingly most fiduciary finance institutions remain outside the perimeter of macro prudential regulations This challenging and multidisciplinary work promises to provide a fascinating read for academics focusing on economics and finance money and banking as well as for investment and financial services practitioners policymakers and market regulators
