The Hidden Hills Saga I Ice Whispers:

The Hidden Hills Saga K. Willow, 2014-11-21 Slavery of a different kind beyond physical chains leads to a different type of escape Marissa Kristofferson can taste freedom Her long years of suffering at the hands of her sadistic husband Lance are coming to an end as he lies dying But she is stunned when he reveals the contents of his will and what she must do to keep Kristofferson Plantation and how he plans to keep her bound to him even beyond the grave The beautiful slave Lolley has always envied Marissa s life and after learning that the master has also ordered her freed after his death she is determined to reach for the life she wants by becoming the mistress of Marissa s son Shane though she does not realize the lengths Marissa will go to to prevent the match or the far reaching consequences that will follow And Shelby the plain and dutiful slave of free blacks is unwittingly caught in the shocking drama that unfolds as a family is torn apart Used as a pawn in a game of rivalry deception and betrayal hers is a fight for survival while attempting to remain true to herself Three women so very different but each carrying dark secrets that are closely intertwined caught in a world between slave and free a world which is becoming more fragile and precarious as war threatens and alliances shift and each harboring seemingly impossible dreams of a better future In this first book of a dark historical saga K Willow paints a lush emotional portrait of scandal murder injustice and the ties that bind in the antebellum South
