the pivotal question whether there was a paradigm shift in the humanities around 1800 or whether these changes were part of a much longer process The authors provide an overarching perspective including philology musicology art history linguistics historiography philosophy and literary theory They also make clear that the influence from the East from the Ottoman Empire to China was crucial for the development of the European humanistic disciplines Faith, Reason, and Power in the Early Modern World Gloria K. Fiero, 1998 In Volume Four readers are exposed to the cornerstones of the early modern world from the age of the Baroque to the art music and culture of the eighteenth century As in previous volumes the author presents lively discussion accompanied by literary excerpts and examples to illuminate a variety of topics including Catholicism's global reach the birth of modern philosophy the political theories of Hobbes and Locke the Enlightenment and the music of Haydn and Mozart to name a few The Humanistic Tradition Gloria K. Fiero, 2001-10-01 Designed for Introduction to Humanities courses Gloria Fiero's The Humanistic Tradition is the only completely successful integration of non western and western cultures achieved by the appropriate placement of non western elements at points in the text where they influence and complement their western counterparts But there is more The Humanistic Tradition also addresses contemporary issues of gender and race with sensitivity and appropriateness using historical examples from the past as templates for the present Laurinda S Dixon Syracuse University The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern European History, 1350-1750 Hamish Scott, 2015-07-23 This Handbook re-examines the concept of early modern history in a European and global context The term early modern has been familiar especially in Anglophone scholarship for four decades and is securely established in teaching research and scholarly publishing More recently however the unity implied in the notion has fragmented while the usefulness and even the validity of the term and the historical periodisation which it incorporates have been questioned The Oxford Handbook of Early Modern European History 1350-1750 provides an account of the development of the subject during the past half century but primarily offers an integrated and comprehensive survey of present knowledge together with some suggestions as to how the field is developing It aims both to interrogate the notion of early modernity itself and to survey early modern Europe as an established field of study The overriding aim will be to establish that early modern is not simply a chronological label but possesses a substantive integrity Volume II is devoted to Cultures and Power opening with chapters on philosophy science art and architecture music and the Enlightenment Subsequent sections examine Europe beyond Europe with the transformation of contact with other continents during the first global age and military and political developments notably the expansion of state power Looseleaf for The Humanistic Tradition, Book 2: Medieval Europe And The World Beyond Gloria K. Between Hubris & Fear: The Crisis of the Modern Self Volume II Hermann Selchow,101-01-01 Between Hubris Fear The Crisis of the Modern Self Volume II A stirring nonfiction book about the loss of our values in a torn world Why does our society seem more disoriented than ever despite progress freedom and prosperity Between Hubris Fear The Crisis of the Modern Self relentlessly exposes how the modern self is torn apart between self aggrandizement and deep insecurity and in the process central humanistic values such as decency loyalty responsibility and morality are lost This book is a passionate plea for a return to what defines our humanity It analyzes with a clear perspective and philosophical depth how egocentrism moral arbitrariness and collective fears are destabilizing our society Instead of true freedom we are experiencing an identity crisis and with it the gradual disappearance of empathy solidarity and spirituality This book invites you to pause To reflect And perhaps even to take new paths It combines philosophical depth with understandable language and is aimed at all those who want to understand not just observe What you can expect from this book Decline in values ethics in the modern age Hubris and self promotion in social media Culture of fear and loss of identity The role of humanism in the 21st century Paths to a new moral orientation For all those who sense that something crucial is being lost in our society and who are looking for answers guidance and true depth This book is a wake up call and offers hope For you For us For a better society

Domestic Devotions in the Early Modern World, 2018-12-10 This volume sets out to explore the world of domestic devotions and is premised on the assumption that the home was a central space of religious practice and experience throughout the early modern world The contributions to this book which deal with themes dating from the fifteenth to the eighteenth century tell of the intimate relationship between humans and the sacred within the walls of the home The volume demonstrates that the home cannot be studied in isolation the sixteen essays that encompass religious history the histories of art and architecture material culture literary history and social and cultural history instead point individually and collectively to the porosity of the home and its connectedness with other institutions and broader communities Contributors Dotan Arad Kathleen Ashley Martin Christ Hildegard Diemberger Marco Faini Suzanna Ivani Debra Kaplan Marion H Katz Soyeon Kim Hester Lees Jeffries Borja Franco Llopis Alessia Meneghin Francisco J Moreno D az del Campo Cristina Osswald Kathleen M Ryor Igor Sosa Mayor Hanneke van Asperen Torsten Wollina and Jungyoon Yang Early Postmodernism Paul A. Bové, 1995 In the decade that followed 1972 the journal boundary 2 consistently published many of the most distinguished and most influential statements of an emerging literary postmodernism Recognizing postmodernism as a dominant force in culture particularly in the literary and narrative imagination the journal appeared when literary critical study in the United States was in a period of theory induced ferment The fundamental relations between postmodernism and poststructuralism were being initially examined and the effort to formulate a critical sense of the postmodern was underway In this volume Paul A Bov the current editor of boundary 2 has gathered many of those foundational essays and as such has assembled a basic text in the history of postmodernism Essays by noted cultural and literary theorists join with Bov s contemporary preface to represent the important and unique moment in recent intellectual history when postmodernism was no longer seen primarily as an architectural term had not yet come to describe the wide range of culture it does now but was finding power and place in the literary realm These essays show that the history of postmodernism and its attendant critical theories are both more complex and more deeply bound with literary criticism than often is acknowledged today Early Postmodernism demonstrates not only the significance of these literary studies but also the role played by literary critical postmodernism in making possible newer forms of critical and cultural studies Contributors Barry Alpert Charles Altieri David Antin Harold Bloom Paul A Bov H l ne Cixous Gerald Gillespie Ihab Hassan Joseph N Riddel William V Spanos Catharine R Stimpson Cornel West
