Storytelling in World Cinemas Lina Khatib, 2012-05-29 Storytelling in World Cinemas Vol 1 Forms is an innovative collection of essays that discuss how different cinemas of the world tell stories The book locates European Asian African and Latin American films within their wider cultural and artistic frameworks showing how storytelling forms in cinema are infused with influences from other artistic literary and oral traditions This volume also reconsiders cinematic storytelling in general highlighting the hybridity of national forms of storytelling calling for a rethinking of African cinematic storytelling that goes beyond oral traditions and addressing films characterised by non narration This study is the first in a two volume project with the second focusing on the contexts of cinematic storytelling

Ethnic American Food Today: A Cultural Encyclopedia Lucy M. Long, 2015-07-17 Ethnic American Food Today introduces readers to the myriad ethnic food cultures in the U S today Entries are organized alphabetically by nation and present the background and history of each food culture along with explorations of the place of that food in mainstream American society today Many of the entries draw upon ethnographic research and personal experience giving insights into the meanings of various ethnic food traditions as well as into what how and why people of different ethnicities are actually eating today The entries look at foodways the network of activities surrounding food itself as well as the beliefs and aesthetics surrounding that food and the changes that have occurred over time and place They also address stereotypes of that food culture and the culture s influence on American eating habits and menus describing foodways practices in both private and public contexts such as restaurants groceries social organizations and the contemporary world of culinary arts Recipes of representative or iconic dishes are included This timely two volume encyclopedia addresses the complexity and richness of both ethnicity and food in America today Feast Nigella

the Soviet dictator in his hometown Gori and Georgian nationalism in the uprising of 1956 Essays about the Abkhaz independence movement the political role of national saints post Soviet identity crises atheist sub cultures and current perceptions of citizenship take the volume into the contemporary period Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin,Irina Livezeanu,Christine D. Worobec,June Pachuta Farris,2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes The Ethnomusicologists'

Cookbook, Volume II Sean Williams,2015-07-24 This companion to The Ethnomusicologists Cookbook combines scholarship with a unique approach to the study of the world s foods musics and cultures Covering over four dozen regions the entries in these collection each include a regional food related proverb a recipe for a complete meal a list of companion readings and listening pieces and a short essay that highlights the significant links between music and food in the area The Ethnomusicologists Cookbook Volume 2 will appeal to ethnomusicologists anthropologists and sociologists but should also find a welcome place on the bookshelf of anyone who enjoys eating and learning about foods from around the world For the Love of Wine Alice Feiring,2016-03 In 2011 when Alice Feiring first arrived in Georgia she felt as if she d emerged from the magic wardrobe into a world filled with mythical characters making exotic and delicious wine with the low tech methods of centuries past She was smitten and she wasn t alone This country on the Black Sea has an unusual effect on people the most passionate rip off their clothes and drink wines out of horns while the cold hearted well up with tears and make emotional toasts Visiting winemakers fall under Georgia s spell and bring home qvevris clay fermentation vessels while rethinking their own techniques But as in any good fairy tale Feiring sensed that danger rode shotgun with the magic With acclaim and growing international interest come threats in the guise of new wine consultants aimed at making wines more commercial So Feiring fought back in the only way she knew how by celebrating Georgia and the men and women who make the wines she loves most those made naturally with organic viticulture minimal intervention and no additives From Tbilisi to Batumi Feiring meets winemakers bishops farmers artists and silk spinners She feasts toasts and collects recipes She encounters the thriving qvevri craftspeople of the countryside wild grape hunters and even Stalin s last winemaker while plumbing the depths of this tiny country s love for its wines For the Love of Wine is Feiring s emotional tale of a remarkable country and people who have survived religious wars and Soviet occupation yet managed always to keep hold of their precious wine traditions Embedded in the narrative is the hope that Georgia has the temerity to confront its latest threat modernization

Countries and Territories of the World , The Cult of St Anna in Byzantium Eirini Panou,2018-05-11 The Cult of St Anna in Byzantium is the first undertaking in Byzantine research to study the phenomenon of St Anna s cult from the sixth to the fifteenth centuries It was prompted by the need to enrich our knowledge of a female saint who had already been studied in the West but remained virtually unknown in Eastern Christendom It focuses on a figure little studied in scholarship and examines the formation establishment and promotion of an apocryphal saint who made her way to the pantheon of Orthodox saints Visual and material culture relics and texts track the gradual social and ideological transformation of Byzantium from early Christianity until the fifteenth century This book not only examines various aspects of early Christian and Byzantine civilisation but also investigates how the cult of saints greatly influenced cultural changes in order to suit theological social and political demands The cult of St Anna influenced many diverse elements of Christian life in Constantinople including the creation of sacred spaces and the location of haghiasmata fountains of holy water in the city imperial patronage the social reception of St Anna s story and relic narratives This monograph breaks new ground in explaining how and why Byzantium and the Orthodox Church attributed scriptural authority to a minor figure known only from a non canonical work
