God as Author Gene C. Fant, Jr.,2010-05-01 God as Author takes a thoughtful literary approach to understanding the Gospel Gene Fant writes in the preface Most of us have heard that Christ is the Author and Finisher of our faith Hebrews

12 2 so it makes sense that the Gospel would be God's story As many a church message board has noted so succinctly History is His Story In our easy discussions of special revelation I cannot help but wonder if we have missed something awe inspiring that may be revealed by a reversal of the lens that we turn toward narrative Perhaps the Gospel is not just like a story perhaps story narrative in general is like the Gospel My clear conviction is that something stands behind the power of narrative In fact I believe that Someone stands behind it There is an Author whose skill and grace imbues the broad range of the stories that we tell There is a Father who gave us a story to help us understand our place in this world a story that points back to Him His story is in many ways the only story that we know When we use that realization as a foundation for interpreting and generating narrative it changes everything including ourselves The Final Club Geoffrey Wolff,1990 A half Jewish outsider from Seattle must navigate the snobbery and discrimination of 1950s Princeton learning a bitter comic lesson about the way of the world

Resources in Education ,1992 The Lost Art of Reading David L. Ulin,2010-06-01 Reading is a revolutionary act an act of engagement in a culture that wants us to disengage In The Lost Art of Reading David L Ulin asks a number of timely questions why is literature important What does it offer especially now Blending commentary with memoir Ulin addresses the importance of the simple act of reading in an increasingly digital culture Reading a book flipping through hard pages or shuffling them on screen it doesn't matter The key is the act of reading and its seriousness and depth Ulin emphasizes the importance of reflection and pause allowed by stopping to read a book and the accompanying focus required to let the mind run free in a world that is not one's own Are we willing to risk our collective interest in contemplation nuanced thinking and empathy Far from preaching to the choir The Lost Art of Reading is a call to arms or rather to pages Literature James H.
