The Gospel of Leadership Ryan Krupa, 2018-09-21 This book is an odyssey into the truth of leadership's nature and essence. Written for aspiring leaders, teachers of leaders and followers, the aim is to practice awakening a leader's potential. The book mirrors and reflects the inner nature of the leadership journey. It is written in a contemplative style and uses dialogue to exercise a leader's will, intelligence and spirit. The techniques taught in these chapters are dialogue, meditation and contemplation. The author seeks to teach leaders how to exercise the power of will and the power of intelligence to make the kinetic chain of knowing, willing and acting morally and intellectually strong. Reading this book serves as a leadership development exercise. This book is a teaching tool designed to demystify what takes place in the interior nature of a leader. It examines a leader's soul as it is exercised and strengthened in preparation for the cardinal act of leading and it analyzes the act of making practical judgments, an act that demands the cultivation of a discerning mind to see and know the truth to be acted upon. Based on a true story, these chapters are a reflection on the formation of a leader and a realization of twenty years of research. Theatre & War Nandita Dinesh, 2019-07-05 In Theatre she describes various projects that she has undertaken; on the ground she theorizes strategies that might be useful to other practitioner-researchers who are involved in similar work. In this sequel of sorts, Dinesh chooses to return to the same themes of theatre of war. But this time she intentionally crafts her notes from afar. From somewhere outside the field. From somewhere outside the practice. And yet a somewhere that is consumed by the field. And the practice. Through writing that seeks to do through writing that seeks to perform. Dinesh uses different voices in this book. Voices that come from more traditional archival sources which are then re-conceptualized as drama. Voices that come from sources that occupy the space between archived and lived experience which are then shaped into creative vignettes. Voices that come from Dinesh's repertoire, her own lived experiences that are then crafted as flash fiction about past, present, future collaborators. By weaving together variously positioned experiences and voices through creative re-interpretations, Theatre it is also a book that could be performed.
