The Hitman S Woman:

The Hitman's Woman Devon Vaughn Archer, 2011-10-24 Beverly Holland lives it up with her older businessman beau Eric Fox. He gives her everything she craves except satisfaction between the sheets. Frustrated, she picks up sexy stranger Dante at a hotel bar who shows her what she's been missing. But he's also about to shake up her life. Beverly has no idea that Eric is really a hitman or that Dante has a vendetta. Eric killed his brother and now he wants Eric dead. Beverly also doesn't know that while she's carrying on with her man's potential killer, her man's carrying on with her best friend Marilyn who will do anything to make Eric hers. When the forces of lust, lies, betrayal, and revenge collide, who's going to survive and who will ultimately be the hitman's woman.

When Women Kill Alia Trabucco Zerán, 2022-04-05 A genre-bending feminist account of four Chilean women who committed the double transgression of murder, violating not only criminal law but also the invisible laws of gender. Women Who Kill: Four Crimes Retold analyzes four homicides carried out by Chilean women over the course of the twentieth century. Drawing on her training as a lawyer, Alia Trabucco Zerán offers a nuanced close reading of their lives and crimes, foregoing sensationalism in order to dissect how all four were both perpetrators of violent acts and victims of another, more insidious kind of violence. This radical retelling challenges the archetype of the woman murderer and reveals another narrative, one as disturbing and provocative as the transgressions themselves. What makes women lash out against the restraints of gendered domesticity and how do we, readers/viewers/the media/the art world/the political establishment, treat them when they do? Expertly intertwining true crime, critical essay, and research diary, International Booker Prize finalist Alia Trabucco Zerán's The Remainder (in a translation by Sophie Hughes) brings an overdue feminist perspective to the study of deviant women.

The Hitman's Daughter Carlyne Topdjian, 2022-02-22 The Chateau du Ciel was once the destination for the rich and famous to play, drink, and ski, complete with a private railway to shuttle those desiring extra privacy. Now, however, the guests are few and far between. The New Year's Eve party was supposed to hoist the rundown hotel back to its former status until a massive blizzard hits, trapping the guests who've come to celebrate the grand hotel's last hurrah. The circumstances might even be romantic if the hotel wasn't reputed to be haunted. When hotel employee Mave Michael finds the resident artist dead and shortly thereafter, hotel security finds Mave alone with the body, the reputation that Mave has fought long and hard to outrun comes back to haunt her. You see, her father is a notorious hitman who is serving multiple life sentences in prison. She has changed her name and location dozens of times, but he somehow manages to track her down, even sending her a postcard on the eve of her birthday, January 1st. She's the perfect choice to frame for murder, and now the number one suspect, Mave can no longer deny the lessons in survival her father taught her and calls on that, and her uncanny sixth sense in finding lost objects to navigate the maze of the hotel. To save herself, she not only has to stop running from her own past, she must unearth the history of the hotel, its elite guests, and buried secrets, one deadly sin at a time. An homage to classic gothic horror that proves that the ghosts of family and classism are alive and well. A

Women and Crime in Post-Transitional South African Crime Fiction Sabine Binder, 2020-11-16 In this ground breaking study Sabine Binder analyses the complex ways in which female crime fictional victims, detectives and perpetrators in South African crime fiction resonate with widespread and persistent real crimes against women in post apartheid South Africa. Drawing on a wide range of crime novels written over the last decade Binder emphasises the genre's feminist potential and critically maps its political work at the intersection of gender and race. Her study challenges the perception of crime fiction as a trivial genre and shows how in South Africa at least it provides a vibrant platform for social, cultural and ethical debates exposing violence, misogyny and racism and shedding light on the problematics of law and justice for women faced with crime.
