The Holy Earth (Classic Reprint) L. H. Bailey,2015-07-07 Excerpt from The Holy Earth So bountiful hath been the earth and so securely have we drawn from it our substance that we have taken it all for granted as if it were only a gift and with little care or conscious thought of the consequences of our use of it nor have we very much considered the essential relation that we bear to it as living parts in the vast creation It is good to think of ourselves of this teeming tense and aspiring human race as a helpful and contributing part in the plan of a cosmos and as participators in some far reaching destiny The idea of responsibility is much asserted of late but we relate it mostly to the attitude of persons in the realm of conventional conduct which we have come to regard as very exclusively the realm of morals and we have established certain formalities that satisfy the conscience About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

tokens from holy places and their containers with architectural and topographical emulations two dimensional images and bodily relics However unlike textual or visual representations natural materials do not describe or interpret the Holy Land they are part of it Tangible and timeless they realize the meaning of their place of origin in new locations What makes earth stones or bottled water transported from holy sites sacred How do they become pars pro toto signifying the whole from which they were taken This book will examine natural media used for translating loca sancta the processes of their sanctification and how although inherently abstract they become charged with meaning It will address their metamorphosis natural or induced how they change the environment to which they are transported their capacity to translate a static and distant site elsewhere the effect of their relocation on users viewers and how their containers and staging are used to communicate their substance
