Ss2 Civic Education Textbook:

Essential Civic Education for Senior Secondary Schools (SS1, SS2 & SS3) Gbenga M. Babalola, Igbinobu Chuks, 2015 Project Citizen Level 2 Student Textbook, 2010 The Civic Education Project ... Educational Research Corporation, Educational Research Corporation. Civic Education Project, 1948 Civic Education & Culture Bradley C. S. Watson, 2005 What do we teach our citizens This great Platonic question is as crucial today as it has ever been America and the West come to terms with this question in the context of their richly diverse technologically sophisticated fundamentally individualistic societies Virtually all would agree that such diversity sophistication and freedom are positive political and cultural goods but many would also argue that they militate against the coherence that all regimes and civilizations must in some way demand The nature extent and coherence of civic education are perhaps the greatest determinants of a regime's politics and culture and the regime can in turn do much to foster the right kind of civic education This book presents the insights of renowned scholars and writers including Stephen H Balch Timothy Fuller and Roger Kimball who have thought broadly and deeply about the role that education at all levels plays in promoting maintaining or undermining our politics culture and society Local Civics with National Purpose J. Spencer Clark, 2021-02-03 This book examines the development of civic education in the United States through the lives of two teachers at Shortridge High School SHS in Indianapolis around 1900 After situating civic education at the turn of the century the book describes the career of Laura Donnan her influences teaching extracurriculars and civic life through the lens of her unique epistemology shaped by negotiating the gendered ideologies of her era Then the book re-examines Arthur W Dunn's career focusing on his ten years at SHS and the influence of Donnan on his popular community civics curriculum and subsequently the 1916 report The Social Studies in Secondary Education Previous scholars have overlooked Dunn's time at SHS viewing it simply as a stepping stone for the progressive educator's career This book argues that Dunn's time at SHS was pivotal to his career due to influential colleagues primarily Donnan To conclude Clark discusses the implications of Donnan's epistemology in shaping civic education in the United States Project Citizen We the People-- Project Citizen, Center for Civic Education (Calif.), National Conference of State Legislatures, 2010 Civic Education for Diverse Citizens in Global Times Beth C. Rubin, James M. Giarelli, 2013-10-11 This book explores four interrelated themes rethinking civic education in light of the diversity of U S society re-examining these notions in an increasingly interconnected global context re-considering the ways that civic education is researched and practiced and taking stock of where we are currently through use of an historical understanding of civic education There is a gap between theory and practice in social studies education while social studies researchers call for teachers to nurture skills of analysis decision making and participatory citizenship students in social studies classrooms are often found participating in passive tasks e.g. quiz and test taking worksheet completion listening to lectures rather than engaging critically with the curriculum Civic Education for Diverse Citizens in Global Times directed at

students researchers and practitioners of social studies education seeks to engage this divide by offering a collection of work that puts practice at the center of research and theory Making Civics Count David E. Campbell, Meira Levinson, Frederick M. Hess, 2012-10-01 By nearly every measure Americans are less engaged in their communities and political activity than generations past So write the editors of this volume who survey the current practices and history of citizenship education in the United States They argue that the current period of creative destruction when schools are closing and opening in response to reform mandates is an ideal time to take an in depth look at how successful strategies and programs promote civic education and good citizenship Making Civics Count offers research based insights into what diverse students and teachers know and do as civic actors and proposes a blueprint for civic education for a new generation that is both practical and visionary Learning the Ways of Democracy ,2012-05-01 The Future of Civic Education Elizabeth Yeager Washington, Keith C Barton, 2024-10-07 Speaking to the need to move beyond traditional formulations this textbook presents radical visions for transforming civic education in the United States Drawing on the experience of educators and scholars including those rooted in feminist queer abolitionist global and race conscious perspectives this work offers new practical ideas for civic education reform Responding to recent political crises many scholars educators and public commentators have called for a rebirth of civic education but these all are grounded in the premise that the goal of civic education should be to teach students about the U S Constitutional system and how to operate within it This book argues that the U S governmental system including the Constitution is infused with racist and anti democratic premises and procedures It asks How can we seek a new path one that is more democratic more equitable and more humane A diverse range of leading civic educators who are willing not just to push the boundaries of civic education but to operate outside its assumptions altogether explore what future possibilities for civic education might look like and how these innovative ideas could be implemented in the classroom Combining theory with practice The Future of Civic Education will be important reading for those studying or researching in Social Studies Methods Social Studies Issues Citizenship and Civic Education It will also be beneficial to social studies teachers at elementary and secondary levels as well as policymakers and NGOs The Civic Textbook Aleksandar Saša Zeković, 2005 Civic Education in the Age of Mass Migration Angela M. Banks, 2021 This important book offers an inclusive approach to preparing students to be responsible participants in a democratic society Civic education generally operates through the lens of citizenship where students learn what good citizenship is and what good citizens do Yet the citizenship lens fails to identify the wide range of schoolchildren and their families who participate in economic political and social life Civic Education in the Age of Mass Migration examines the exclusionary aspects of citizenship and offers democratic societies an alternative approach that includes all long term residents regardless of citizenship and immigration status Banks reimagines a civic education curriculum that gives secondary students the knowledge and skills needed to move the United States toward a more perfect union Book Features A brief overview of the history of civic education and why citizenship status and immigration status should be explicitly addressed An examination of the economic political and social forces shaping immigration law A new way to conceptualize membership based on three principles popular sovereignty participation and the jus nexi principle Classroom activities and discussion questions to help civic educators incorporate the idea of citizenship boundaries into their curriculum The Teaching of Civics William John Cooper,1917 The New

Civics Roscoe Lewis Ashley,1925 Making Better Citizens Civic Education Foundation, Cambridge, Mass,1952
