The Works of John Owen John Owen, 1862 THE GLORY OF CHRIST JOHN OWEN, Rev Terry Kulakowski, Editor, 2015-11-27 The following treatise may be regarded as a series of Discourses on John xvii 24 The subject is the Glory of Christ as the representative of God to the church in the mystery of his Person in his office as Mediator in his exaltation on high in his relation to the church during every age of its history and in the final consummation of his work when all things are to be gathered into a blessed unity as the result of his mediation The Works of John Owen, D.D. John Owen, 1871

Jonathan Edwards's Theology: A Reinterpretation Kyle C. Strobel, 2012-11-29 This volume provides an interpretative key to Jonathan Edwards's theology developed from within his own doctrinal constructs Strobel offers a dogmatic exposition of Edwards's theology by unveiling the trinitarian architecture of his thought Building upon this analysis Strobel applies his construct to reinterpret three key areas of redemption debated widely in the secondary literature spiritual knowledge regeneration and religious affection In order to achieve this purpose Strobel's approach is theological rather than philosophical employing Edwards's self confession as a Reformed theologian to guide his analysis In advancing a theological reading of Edwards Strobel focuses on the systematic nature of Edwards's theology ordering it according to his doctrinal affirmations This necessitates as many Edwards scholars now affirm a primary focus on Edwards's trinitarian theology where the Trinity serves as the key ontological principle which orders the whole of his doctrinal construction By grounding the interpretive key in Edwards's understanding of the Trinity Strobel's idiosyncratic exposition of his doctrine of the Trinity serves to recast Edwards's theology in a new light Systematic Theology, Volume One Stephen J. Wellum, 2024-02-15

Stephen Wellum's Systematic Theology Volume One is a Trinitarian reformational and baptistic systematic theology committed to serious evangelical engagement with the Scriptures Building on decades of research Wellum formulates doctrine exegetically covenantally and canonically for a new generation of students pastors church leaders and seasoned theologians as well Justification, Volume 1 Michael Horton, 2018-11-27 The first of a two volume project delving into the doctrine of justification Michael Horton seeks not simply to recover a clear message of its role in modern Reformed theology but also to bring a fresh discovery of the gospel in a time when contemporary debates around justification have reignited The doctrine of justification stands at the center of our systematic reflection on the meaning of salvation and grace as well as our piety mission and life together And yet within mainline Protestant and evangelical theology it's often taken for granted or left to gather dust in favor of modern concerns and self renewal Volume 1 is an exercise in historical theology exploring the doctrine of justification from the patristic era to the Reformation This book Provides a map for contemporary discussions of justification identifying and engaging principal sources Origen Chrysostom Augustine Thomas Aquinas John Duns Scotus William of Ockham Gabriel Biel and the magisterial reformers Studies the transformations of the doctrine through Aquinas Scotus and the nominalists leading up to the era of the Reformation and the Council of Trent Concludes by examining the hermeneutical and theological significance of the Reformers understanding of the law and the gospel and the resultant covenantal scheme that became formative in Reformed theology Engaging and thorough Justification will not only reenergize the reader whether Protestant or Catholic with a passion for understanding this essential and long running doctrinal conversation but also challenge anyone to engage critically with the history of the Church and the heart of the gospel

Justification, Volume 2 Michael Horton, 2018-11-27 The second of a two volume project delving into the doctrine of justification Michael Horton seeks not simply to recover a clear message of its role in modern Reformed theology but also to bring a fresh discovery of the gospel in a time when contemporary debates around justification have reignited The doctrine of justification stands at the center of our systematic reflection on the meaning of salvation and grace as well as our piety mission and life together And yet within mainline Protestant and evangelical theology it s often taken for granted or left to gather dust in favor of modern concerns and self renewal Volume 2 embarks on the theologically constructive task of investigating the biblical doctrine of justification in light of contemporary exegesis Taking up the topic from a variety of theological vantage points Horton engages with contemporary debates in biblical especially Pauline scholarship Part 1 draws out The Horizon of Justification from the Old Testament narratives of Adam and Israel Part 2 defines The Achievement of

Justification in the blood of Christ and seeks to lay the groundwork for understanding its extent Part 3 focuses on The Gift of Righteousness delving into a clear articulation of what justification means its mechanism and the role of works on the day of judgement Part 4 proposes a way forward for Receiving Justification and understanding faith and justification within the broader framework of union with Christ Engaging and thorough Justification shows that the doctrine of justification finds its most ecumenically significant starting point and proper habitat in unity with Christ where the greatest consensus past and present is to be found among Orthodox Roman Catholic and Protestant theologies The Christian's Highest Good Douglas Vickers,2014-04-07 Competing worldviews cast their impact on the church and the Christian confession What does it mean to be a Christian in an age that threatens cultural dissolution Related questions press on a calm consideration of the meaning of the Christian life Who is Jesus Christ of whose salvific work the Christian confession depends Why did Jesus Christ come into the world What is to be said of the human condition following the Adamic fall which as John Milton says brought death into the world and all our woe What is the Christian s highest good the grounds on which it has life determining relevance and what are its existential implications In this closely reasoned and biblically informed examination of those questions Douglas Vickers concludes that the Christian s highest good exists in fellowship with the Father The practical and everyday significance of that fellowship is addressed at length and the meaning and prospect of each Christian s eternal life is shown to be grounded in a vital and indissoluble union with Christ The Foundation of Joy Jeff Strickland,2025-04-21 The Puritans have been depicted as killjoys whose teachings on assurance of salvation and self examination bred anxiety and despair But is that really the case In The Foundation of Joy Jeff Strickland investigates the link between John Flavel s understanding of assurance and his pursuit of joy After explaining Flavel s approach to assurance and how it actually provides a foundation for joy Strickland demonstrates how Flavel expresses these in the key areas of looking to Christ discerning the Spirit obeying the law keeping the heart and carrying the cross Joy is the hallmark of Flavel s spirituality a fine example of what it means to cultivate a cheerfulness of heart founded on a sense of one s interest in Christ Being in Christ Hans Burger,2009-01-01 Being in Christ is a central theme in the message of the gospel It is central for understanding the relation of Christian believers and the church with Jesus Christ their Lord It determines the identity of a Christian It is helpful for understanding the presence of Christ and his salvation in the present It can be developed as an element of a theological ontology Finally it is a theme with a great integrating power In this book the theme being in Christ is analyzed in different perspectives The attention is focused on the reality of being in Christ its ontological implications First two representatives of the Reformed tradition are investigated the English Puritan John Owen and the Dutch Neo Calvinist Herman Bavinck Second a reconstruction of the Pauline and Johannine perspectives on being in Christ is provided Third the theme is examined in the work of the English ethicist Oliver O Donovan and the German Swiss theologian Ingolf U Dalferth In the final chapter the author gives his own systematic theological proposal of a concept of being in Christ All Things

Through Christ Robert Walderman, 2025-07-26 This book provides a concise look into the essential and extensive work of Christ as Mediator and how that unfolds within the Trinity It addresses the questions of why we need a mediator how Christ mediates and the blessings of having a mediator Robert Walderman expounds upon an abundance of Scriptures dealing with the mediation of Christ He also takes to heart the words of Charles Spurgeon who said He who will not use the thoughts of other men's brains proves that he has no brains of his own and supports his ideas with a compilation of insightful quotes from a host of outstanding theologians and scholars Theologians from the past such as John Calvin William Perkins John Owen and Charles Spurgeon as well as more contemporary authors such as R C Sproul and John Piper In addition the author weaves throughout the book his own thought provoking insights personal experiences and helpful illustrations to create a readable introduction to the topic which can also be used as an everyday devotional or study Pierced for Our Transgressions

Steve Jeffery, Michael Ovey, Andrew Sach, 2007-10-23 The belief that Jesus died for us suffering the wrath of his own Father in our place has been the wellspring of hope for countless Christians through the ages However with an increasing number of theologians church leaders and even popular Christian books and magazines questioning this doctrine which naysayers have described as a form of cosmic child abuse a fresh articulation and affirmation of penal substitution is needed And Jeffery Ovey and Sach have responded here with clear exposition and analysis They make the case not only that the doctrine is clearly taught in Scripture but that it has an impeccable pedigree and a central place in Christian theology and that its neglect has serious consequences The authors also systematically analyze over twenty specific objections that have been brought against penal substitution and charitably but firmly offer a defining declaration of the doctrine of the cross for any concerned reader Countdown to Victory

V. Vernon ECKLEBERRY, 2006-08-23 The reader will first be introduced to the historical and theological roots for interpreting the millennial passages in Revelation 20 Secondly millennial views will be examined as they relate to the Kingdom of God the church and Israel Thirdly the schools of interpretation will be assigned a particular dimension spiritual chronological or ecclesiastical that will facilitate the merging of the three major viewpoints into a multidimensional model This will be followed fourthly with a verse by verse commentary of Revelation 20 utilizing the writings of scholars from the three millennial viewpoints Finally a descriptive account of the salvation history portrayed in Revelation 20 will emerge in the form of a narrative that utilizes the dynamic multidimensional model of the Millennium

Seminatorul (The Sower), Volume One, Number One Hamilton Moore, Ilie Soritau, Adrian Giorgiov, 2019-09-10 About the Journal This first volume of Seminatorul The Sower The Journal of Ministry and Biblical Research has been produced through the collaboration of Emanuel University Press the Emanuel Ethics and Society Research Centre and distinguished colleagues from the Hungarian Baptist Academy The publishing efforts were aided by Dr Almasi Tibor Rector Hungarian Baptist Academy The volume comprises the Proceedings of the International Theological Conference held by the Department of Theology on 6th May 2016 in Emanuel University of Oradea The theme of the Conference was Hebrews Its Historical

Context and Theological Significance For many scholars Hebrews 13:22 gives some guidance concerning the nature of the epistle Bear with my word of exhortation for I have written to you briefly The suggestion is that the background may be a sermon given on a certain occasion and then later adapted into letter form with the addition of personal comments at the end But what of its readers It is thought that the first readers were Hebrews and the camp of 13:13 ancient Judaism They were Jews attracted to the Christian community and who had identified with it But Christianity had none of the ritual trappings they had known no altar no priests no sacrifices They were meeting ridicule opposition imprisonment and being disowned and disinherited by their families 10:32 Some had coped well with this adversity but others were looking back to the temple from where they had come 10:32-39 Was not Judaism God ordained The author of Hebrews seeks to set before them the better things which have become theirs a better priesthood better sanctuary better sacrifice better covenant true access to the very presence of the Most High 10:19-21 Also the greater things that is Christ greater than angels Moses Joshua and Aaron The Proceedings Papers in this Journal will touch upon some of the aspects of the situation outlined above The significance of the opening verses of Hebrews for the whole epistle is outlined in the opening paper Other papers focus on the themes endurance pilgrimage echoes in interpretation a comparison of the epistle with Philo the significance of the time of reformation for worship in Hebrews a semiotic approach regarding Psalm 2 and the profile of the Son the concept of repentance and critique of the perspectives of George Milligan regarding the importance of the epistle Emanuel University continues to be a strong witness as a conservative university in all of Europe It should be understood that the sources highlighted and the views presented in these papers remain those of the contributors themselves Hamilton Moore Editor

Soul Recreation Tom Schwanda, 2012-04-11 Spiritually there is a great hunger today for contemplative and more satisfying experiences with God Puritanism might seem to be an unlikely source for this yet few groups in the history of Christian spirituality have written more extensively or wisely on the subject Isaac Ambrose 1604-64 a relatively forgotten English Puritan developed a theological foundation for the spiritual life based upon the Christian's intimate union with Christ which the Puritans often called spiritual marriage Schwanda demonstrates that this vibrant relationship of union and communion with Jesus inspired by the Holy Spirit was manifested in a deep contemplative piety of gazing lovingly and gratefully upon God At the same time Ambrose did not neglect loving his neighbors This study reveals how heavenly meditation was one of the significant practices engaged by Ambrose to cultivate spiritual intimacy and enjoyment of God Further his experiential reading of Scripture in particular the Song of Songs provided him with a language of ravishment and delight in God This book provides a distinctively Protestant foundation for recovering the contemplative life while recognizing the significant contributions of the Western Catholic tradition
