

Introduction:

1. Hook: An engaging 2-3 sentence opener

"I have been drunk just twice in my life and the second time was that afternoon so everything that happened has a dim hazy cast over it although until after eight o'clock the apartment was full of cheerful sun" (Fitzgerald 33). The roaring 20s were a time filled with changes that has influenced our past history and continues to influence society today.

2. Context: A sentence that links your Hook & thesis together. Must include author and title of novel

The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald displays the influential historical context, as well as, the importance of the affects of money, power, and social class.

3. Thesis: *Although some may view The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald as too controversial due to violence, language, and the forthright extramarital affair occurring throughout most of the novel, the text is clearly of benefit within the context of a modern English curriculum. It is not only a good novel to use for teaching literary devices and themes, but it also shows how wealth and power affects the actions of those holding such things, as well as, the important historical context behind the novel.*

Conclusion:

1. Hook (continued): "More than any other author, F. Scott Fitzgerald can be said to have captured the rollicking, tumultuous decade known as the Roaring Twenties, from its wild parties, dancing and illegal drinking to its post-war prosperity and its new freedoms for women" (History.com). Fitzgerald's first hand experience of what happened throughout that decade and how it influenced history.

2. Restate Thesis: *Although some may view The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald as too controversial due to violence, language, and the forthright extramarital affair occurring throughout most of the novel, the text is clearly of benefit within the context of a modern English curriculum. It is not only a good novel to use for teaching literary devices and themes, but it also shows how wealth and power affects the actions of those holding such things, as well as, the important historical context behind the novel.*

3. Final insight: The Great Gatsby* by F. Scott Fitzgerald shows the affects of power, wealth, and social class, as well as, the importance of the historical context of this influential novel.*
