Matthew Reilly, 2024-08-14 A SECRETARY LIKE NO OTHER IN AN EPIC SPANNING 40 YEARS All Hanna Fischer ever wanted to do was to study physics under the great Albert Einstein But when as a teenager in 1919 her life is suddenly turned upside down she is catapulted into a new and extraordinary life as a student a secretary a sister and a spy From racist gangs in Berlin to gangsters in New York City Nazis in the 1930s and Hitler's inner circle during the Second World War Hanna will encounter some of history's greatest minds and most terrible moments all while desperately trying to stay alive She is a most unique secretary and she will work for many bosses from shrewd businessmen to vile Nazis to the greatest boss of them all Mr Albert Einstein Spanning forty years this is the thrilling tale of a young woman propelled through history's most dangerous times But read it carefully because all may not be as it seems Zoo and Aquarium History Vernon N. Kisling, Jr, 2022-07-11 Wild animals have been housed in zoos and aquariums for 5 000 years fascinating people living in virtually every society Today these institutions are at a new milestone in their history This second edition of Zoo and Aquarium History takes the reader on a journey through the transition of private collections to menageries to zoos then zoological gardens and more recently conservation centers and sanctuaries Under the direction of Vernon N Kisling an expert in zoo history an international team of authors has thoroughly updated the only comprehensive global history of animal collections menageries zoos and aquariums The resulting book documents the continuum of efforts in maintaining wild animal collections from ancient civilizations through today explaining how modern zoos have developed their mission statements around the core aims of conservation education research and recreation This new edition pulls together regional information including new chapters on zoological gardens of Canada Latin America China Israel the Middle East and New Zealand along with the cultural aspects of each region to provide a foundation upon which further research can be based It presents a chronological listing of the world's zoos and aquariums and features many never before published photographs Sidebars present supplementary information on pertinent personalities events and wildlife conservation issues The original Appendix has been expanded to include over 1 200 zoos and aquariums providing an invaluable resource This is an extensive chronological introduction to the subject highlighting the published and archival resources for those who want to know more

Reading in Asian Languages Kenneth S. Goodman, Shaomei Wang, Mieko Iventosch, Yetta M. Goodman, 2012-04-23 Reading in Asian Languages is rich with information about how literacy works in the non alphabetic writing systems Chinese Japanese Korean used by hundreds of millions of people and refutes the common Western belief that such systems are hard to learn or to use The contributors share a comprehensive view of reading as construction of meaning which they show is fully applicable to character based reading The book explains how and why non alphabetic writing works well for its users provides explanations for why it is no more difficult for children to learn than are alphabetic writing systems where they are used and demonstrates in a number of ways that there is a single process of making sense of written language regardless of the orthography Unique in its perspective and offering practical theory based methodology for the teaching of literacy in Chinese Japanese and Korean to first and second language learners it is a useful resource for teachers of increasingly popular courses in these languages in North America as well as for teachers and researchers in Asia It will stimulate innovation in both research and instruction
