The Haunted Man and the Ghost's Bargain Charles Dickens,2015-10-17 Everybody said so Far be it from me to assert that what everybody says must be true Everybody is often as likely to be wrong as right In the general experience everybody has been wrong so often and it has taken in most instances such a weary while to find out how wrong that the authority is proved to be fallible Everybody may sometimes be right but that s no rule as the ghost of Giles Scroggins says in the ballad The dread word GHOST recalls me Everybody said he looked like a haunted man The extent of my present claim for everybody is that they were so far right He did Who could have seen his hollow cheek his sunken brilliant eye his black attired figure indefinably grim although well knit and well proportioned his grizzled hair hanging like tangled sea weed about his face as if he had been through his whole life a lonely mark for the chafing and beating of the great deep of humanity but might have said he looked like a haunted man Who could have observed his manner taciturn thoughtful gloomy shadowed by habitual reserve retiring always and jocund never with a distraught air of reverting to a bygone place and time or of listening to some old echoes in his mind but might have said it was the manner of a haunted man Who could have heard his voice slow speaking deep and grave with a natural fulness and melody in it which he seemed to set himself against and stop but might have said it was the voice of a haunted man *Christmas Stories.
