practicing teachers in reading and writing and the very activities that they will use to teach literacy to their own students in middle and high school classrooms. Rather than passively learning about strategies for incorporating content area literacy activities, readers get hands-on experience in such techniques as mapping, webbing, anticipation guides, booktalks, class websites, and journal writing and reflection. Readers also learn how to integrate children's and young adult literature, primary sources, biographies, essays, poetry, and online content communities and websites into their classrooms. Each chapter offers concrete teaching examples and practical suggestions to help make literacy relevant to students' content area learning. Author Sharon Kane demonstrates how relevant reading, writing, speaking, listening, and visual learning activities can improve learning in content area subjects and at the same time help readers meet national content knowledge standards and benchmarks.

Inspiring Meaningful Learning Brenda Stein Dzaldov, 2018-10-09 This remarkable book explores the essential steps for planning lessons that grab the attention of students and make them care about their learning from activating prior knowledge and sparking curiosity to focusing on content skills and inquiry to reviewing work and finding students' next steps. Built around the three key areas that are most important to meaningful learning: content pedagogy and building rapport with students, this practical book shows you how to make every lesson engaging, impactful, and even fun.
