The Graduate Student as Teacher Vincent Nowlis, Kenneth E. Clark, Miriam Rock, 1968

GPS for Graduate School Mark J. T. Smith, 2014 This resource book consists of ten chapters written by sixteen graduate student authors and two academic professional staff members Each chapter is accompanied by a short video that dramatizes the theme along with probing discussion questions The chapter topics include seeking funding the challenges of the first year of graduate school finding a thesis advisor working with thesis committee members balancing family and graduate student life and life after graduate school Where these subjects have been treated in an academic style many times this book conveys its message through personal narratives of the challenging circumstances its graduate student authors encountered and solved It does not give its readers long lists of statistics about graduation rates or most advantageous actions for best outcomes What it does instead is provide readers with a vivid sense of the types of life experiences one can expect to encounter when undertaking a graduate degree and the opportunity to discuss these real life issues with others The book was started and developed as a project under the Midwest Crossroads Alliance for Graduate Education and the Professoriate AGEF and completed as part of the professional development activities under the Committee on Institutional Cooperation CIC AGEF

The Ph.D. Process Dale F. Bloom, Jonathan D. Karp, Nicholas Cohen, 1998 A chronicle of the graduate school years that describes the intellectual and emotional experience of obtaining a PhD in a scientific field Readers will learn what to expect from professors and advisors and how to prepare for oral exams simplify dissertation writing and reap long term benefits

The Graduate Student's Guide to Numerical Analysis '98 Mark Ainsworth,Jeremy Levesley,Marco Marletta,2012-12-06 The Eighth EPSRC Numerical Analysis Summer School was held at the University of Leicester from the 5th to the 17th of July 1998 This was the third Numerical Analysis Summer School to be held in Leicester The previous meetings in 1992 and 1994 had been carefully structured to ensure that each week had a coherent theme For the 1998 meeting in order to widen the audience we decided to relax this constraint Speakers were chosen to cover what may appear at first sight to be quite diverse areas of numerical analysis However we were pleased with the extent to which the ideas cohered and particularly enjoyed the discussions which arose from differing interpretations of those ideas We would like to thank all six of our main speakers for the care which they took in the preparation and delivery of their lectures In this volume we present their lecture notes in alphabetical rather than chronological order Nick Higham Alastair Spence and Nick Trefethen were the speakers in week 1 while Bernardo Cockburn Stig Larsson and Bob Skeel were the speakers in week 2 Another new feature of this meeting compared to its predecessors was that we had invited seminars A number of established academics based in the UK were asked to participate in the afternoon seminar program

The Graduate School Mess Leonard Cassuto,2015-09-14 American graduate education is in disarray Graduate study in the humanities takes too long and those who succeed face a dismal academic job market Leonard Cassuto gives practical advice about how faculty can teach and advise students so that they are prepared for the demands of the working worlds they will join inside and outside the academy
