English Teachers - The Unofficial Guide Bethan Marshall, 2014-05-01 Bethan Marshall traces the competing traditions of English teaching and considers their relevance to the current debate through an analysis of English teachers' views about themselves and their subject. The findings are based on a highly original research method in which teachers were asked to respond to and comment upon five different descriptions of their approaches to English teaching. English Teachers The Unofficial Guide contextualises current debates about English teaching within the subject's contested history, provides a vehicle for teachers to reflect on their own practice and locate themselves within the debate, opens up the debate on assessment practices within English teaching.

Using Informational Text to Teach The Great Gatsby Audrey Fisch, Susan Chenelle, 2018-03-22 The Common Core State Standards initiated major changes for language arts teachers, particularly the emphasis on informational text. Language arts teachers were asked to shift attention toward informational texts without taking away from the teaching of literature. Teachers, however, need to incorporate nonfiction in ways that enhance rather than take away from their teaching of literature. The Using Informational Text series is designed to help. In this fourth volume, Volume 1: Using Informational Text to Teach To Kill a Mockingbird, Volume 2: Using Informational Text to Teach A Raisin in the Sun, Volume 3: Connecting Across Disciplines: Collaborating with Informational Text, we offer challenging and engaging readings to enhance your teaching of Gatsby. Texts from a wide range of genres: a TED Talk, federal legislation, economic policy material, newspaper articles and 1920s political writing, and on a variety of topics: income inequality, nativism and immigration, anti-Semitism, the relationship between wealth and cheating, the Black Sox scandal and newspaper coverage, and prohibition, help students answer essential questions about F. Scott Fitzgerald's novel. Each informational text is part of a student-friendly unit with media links, reading strategies, vocabulary, discussion and writing activities, and out-of-the-box class activities.
