The Edinburgh Companion to Women in Publishing, 1900-2020 Nicola Wilson, Claire Battershill, Sophie Heywood, Marrisa Joseph, Daniela La Penna, Helen Southworth, Alice Staveley and Elizabeth Willson Gordon, 2024-02-29 Women's creative labour in publishing has often been overlooked This book draws on dynamic new work in feminist book history and publishing studies to offer the first comparative collection exploring women's diverse deeply embedded work in modern publishing Highlighting the value of networks collaboration and archives the companion sets out new ways of reading women's contributions to the production and circulation of global print cultures With an international intergenerational set of contributors using diverse methodologies essays explore women working in publishing transatlantically on the continent and beyond the Anglosphere The book combines new work on high profile women publishers and editors alongside analysis of women's work as translators illustrators booksellers advertisers patrons and publisher's readers complemented by new oral histories and interviews with leading women in publishing today The first collection of its kind the companion helps establish and shape a thriving new research field Crossing Borders in Community Interpreting Carmen Valero Garcés, Anne Martin, 2008 At conferences and in the literature on community interpreting there is one burning issue that reappears constantly the interpreter's role What are the norms by which the facilitators of communication shape their role Is there indeed only one role for the community interpreter or are there several Is community interpreting aimed at facilitating communication empowering individuals by giving them a voice or in wider terms at redressing the power balance in society In this volume scholars and practitioners from different countries address these questions offering a representative sample of ongoing research into community interpreting in the Western world of interest to all who have a stake in this form of interpreting The opening chapter establishes the wider contextual and theoretical framework for the debate It is followed by a section dealing with codes and standards and then moves on to explore the interpreter's role in various different settings courts and police healthcare schools occupational settings and social services Advanced Bass Fishing Dick Sternberg, 1995 If you've ever wondered how the pros catch the big bass now's the time to find out This book is loaded with detailed information and photos that demonstrate the techniques used by tournament pros The latest innovations in the sport are presented including information on tackle and presentation Don't just learn how to catch bass learn how to catch HUGE bass Billboard, 1969-04-12 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Youth Identities, Localities, and Visual Material Culture Kristen Ali Eglinton, 2012-10-05 This invaluable addition to Springer's Explorations of Educational Purpose series is a revelatory ethnographic account of the visual material culture of contemporary youths in North America The author's detailed study follows apparently dissimilar groups black and Latino a in a New York City after school club and white and Indigenous in a small Canadian community as they inflect their nascent identities with a sophisticated sense of visual material culture in today's globalized world. It provides detailed proof of how much ethnography can add to what we know about young people's development in addition to its potential as a model to explore new and significant avenues in pedagogy. Supported by a wealth of ethnographic evidence, the analysis tracks its subjects' responses to strikingly diverse material ranging from autobiographical accounts by rap artists to the built environment. It shows how young people from the world's cultural epicenter just like their counterparts in the sub-Arctic construct racial, geographic, and gender identities in ways that are subtly responsive to what they see around them, blending localized characteristics with more widely shared visual references that are now universally accessible through the Web. The work makes a persuasive case that youthful engagement with visual material culture is a relational and productive activity that is simultaneously local and global, at once constrained and enhanced by geography and possesses a potent and life-affirming authenticity. Densely interwoven with young people's perspectives, the author's account sets out an innovative and interdisciplinary conceptual framework affording fresh insights into how today's youth assimilate what they perceive to be significant.
