Civil Rights Movement in the West Bruce A. Glasrud, Cary D. Wintz, 2019-02-14 In 1927 Beatrice Cannady succeeded in removing racist language from the Oregon Constitution During World War II Rowena Moore fought for the right of black women to work in Omaha's meat packinghouses In 1942 Thelma Paige used the courts to equalize the salaries of black and white schoolteachers across Texas In 1950 Lucinda Todd of Topeka laid the groundwork for the landmark Supreme Court decision Brown v Board of Education These actions including sit ins long before the Greensboro sit ins of 1960 occurred well beyond the borders of the American South and East regions most known as the home of the civil rights movement By considering social justice efforts in western cities and states Black Americans and the Civil Rights Movement in the West convincingly integrates the West into the historical narrative of black Americans struggle for civil rights From Iowa and Minnesota to the Pacific Northwest and from Texas to the Dakotas black westerners initiated a wide array of civil rights activities in the early to late twentieth century Connected to national struggles as much as they were tailored to local situations these efforts predated or prefigured events in the East and South In this collection editors Bruce A Glasrud and Cary D Wintz bring these moments into sharp focus as the contributors note the ways in which the racial and ethnic diversity of the West shaped a specific kind of African American activism Concentrating on the far West the mountain states the desert Southwest the upper Midwest and states both southern and western the contributors examine black westerners responses to racism in its various manifestations whether as school segregation in Dallas job discrimination in Seattle or housing bias in San Francisco Together their essays establish in unprecedented detail how efforts to challenge discrimination impacted and changed the West and ultimately the United States

Ethnicity and Culture in Canada John W. Berry, J. A. Laponce, 1994 Ethnicity write J W Berry and J A Laponce in their introduction to this volume is likely to be to the twenty first century what class was to the twentieth that is a major source of tension and political conflict However ethnicity is also increasingly likely to be a source of inspiration and diversification within society Because of the rapidly developing importance of ethnicity and culture in Canada the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council and the Ministry of Multiculturalism and Citizenship undertook in 1991 a project to review research on the subject This volume in nineteen chapters is the record of the findings Papers cover such topics as demography political philosophy history anthropology sociology media studies literature language learning education and ethnic and multicultural attitudes Looking back to the Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism mandated in 1963 the editors point out that the terminology has changed radically and that the evolution from biculturalism to multiculturalism has clarified not only the political agenda but the research agenda as well An insistent theme recurs throughout this volume multiculturalism is taken increasingly as being a characteristic of Canadian society as a whole rather than a concept focused exclusively on new Canadians While the Canadian population has always been ethnically diverse only recently has the diversity been systematically analysed Ethnic and multicultural studies are remarkably well developed in Canada the editors conclude However they point out one shortcoming more apparent in some fields than others

we often know quite well how the dominant group views a minority but we often lack knowledge of the reverse attitudes and opinions Berry and Laponce recommend that we replace one way mirrors with windows preferably open windows BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Bulletin of Bibliography ,2002
