THE HOBBIT: CHAPTER 1 SUMMARY

In Chapter 1 of The Hobbit, we meet Bilbo Baggins, a hobbit living a peaceful life in his cozy home, Bag End, in the Shire. Hobbits are known for their love of comfort, food, and quiet, predictable routines. Bilbo is no exception, and his respectable Baggins family is free of the adventurous spirit seen in his Took relatives. One day, the wizard Gandalf visits Bilbo, hinting at an adventure. Bilbo, uninterested in anything that could disturb his routine, politely declines.

The next day, thirteen dwarves, led by Thorin Oakenshield, unexpectedly arrive at Bilbo's home. They are on a quest to reclaim their ancestors' treasure from the fearsome dragon

Revising Fiction, Fact, and Faith Nathaniel Goldberg, Chris Gavalier, 2020-07-01 This book addresses how our revisionary practices account for relations between texts and how they are read It offers an overarching philosophy of revision concerning works of fiction fact and faith revealing unexpected insights about the philosophy of language the metaphysics of fact and fiction and the history and philosophy of science and religion Using the novels of J R R Tolkien as exemplars the authors introduce a fundamental distinction between the purely physical and the linguistic aspects of texts They then demonstrate how two competing theories of reference descriptivism and referentialism are instead constitutive of a single semantic account needed to explain all kinds of revision The authors also propose their own metaphysical foundations of fiction and fact The next part of the book brings the authors philosophy of revision into dialogue with Thomas Kuhn's famous analysis of factual and specifically scientific change It also discusses a complex episode in the history of paleontology demonstrating how scientific and popular texts can diverge over time Finally the authors expand their philosophy of revision to religious texts arguing that rather than being distinct such texts are always read as other kinds that faith tends to be more important as evidence for religious texts than for others and that the latter explains why religious communities tend to have remarkable historical longevity Revising Fiction Fact and Faith offers a unique and comprehensive account of the philosophy of revision It will be of interest to a wide range of scholars and advanced students working in philosophy of language metaphysics philosophy of literature literary theory and criticism and history and philosophy of science and religion The Bull Hunter Dan Denning,2005-05-31 The Bull Hunter is a personal road map to making big money in the days ahead retirement level wealth that only early investors can enjoy Influential global market analyst Dan Denning reveals what readers can unearth exceptional short and long term profit opportunities He outlines numerous techniques to mine raging bull markets and extraordinary profits in emerging countries sectors industries and companies that are just beginning to flourish He also shows readers how to protect themselves from disastrous risks get in on the stocks of hard asset companies profit from the fastest growing economies in the world and more The Bull Hunter shows readers how with simple trades they can make with a phone call to their broker their investment performance and profits will jump today tomorrow and over the next decade The Wisdom of the Shire Noble Smith,2012-10-30 In The Wisdom of the Shire Noble Smith sheds a light on the life changing ideas tucked away inside the classic works of J R R Tolkien and his most beloved creation the stouthearted Hobbits How can simple pleasures such as gardening taking long walks and eating delicious meals with friends make you significantly happier Why is the act of giving presents on your birthday instead of getting them such a revolutionary idea What should you do when dealing with the Gollum in your life And how can we carry the burden of our own magic ring of power without becoming devoured by it The Wisdom of the Shire holds the answers to these and more of life s essential questions Heritage in the Digital Era Rodanthi Tzanelli,2013 What happens to traditional conceptions of heritage in the era of fluid media spaces Heritage usually involves intergenerational transmission of ideas customs ancestral lands and artefacts and so serves to reproduce national communities over time However media industries have the power to transform national lands and histories into generic landscapes and ideas through digital reproductions or modifications prompting renegotiations of belonging in new ways Contemporary media allow digital environments to function as transnational classrooms creating virtual spaces of debate for people with access to televised cinematic and Internet ideas and networks This book examines a range of popular cinematic interventions that are reshaping national and global heritage across Europe Asia the Americas and Australasia It examines collaborative or adversarial articulations of such enterprise by artists directors producers but also local national and transnational communities that blend activism with commodification presenting new cultural industries as fluid but significant agents in the production of new public spheres Heritage in the Digital Era will appeal to students and scholars of sociology film studies tourist studies globalization theory social theory social movements human cultural geography and cultural studies The Way to Brave
