The Chicago School of Criminology Nels Anderson, 2005 Harry Partch, Hobo Composer S. Andrew Granade, 2014 During the Great Depression Harry Partch rode the railways following the fruit harvest across the country From his experience among hoboes he found what he called a fountainhead of pure musical Americana Although he later wrote immense stage works for instruments of his own creation he is still regularly called a hobo composer for the compositions that grew out of this period of his life Yet few have questioned the label's impact on his musical output compositional life and reception Focusing on Partch the person alongside the cultural icon he represented this study examines Par

Inside Science Robert E. Kohler, 2019-02-27 Context and situation always matter in both human and animal lives Unique insights can be gleaned from conducting scientific studies from within human communities and animal habitats Inside Science is a novel treatment of this distinctive mode of fieldwork Robert E Kohler illuminates these resident practices through close analyses of classic studies of Trobriand Islanders Chicago hobos corner boys in Boston's North End Jane Goodall's chimpanzees of the Gombe Stream Reserve and more Intensive firsthand observation a preference for generalizing from observed particulars rather than from universal principles and an ultimate framing of their results in narrative form characterize these inside stories from the field Resident observing takes place across a range of sciences from anthropology and sociology to primatology wildlife ecology and beyond What makes it special Kohler argues is the direct access it affords scientists to the contexts in which their subjects live and act These scientists understand their subjects not by keeping their distance but by living among them and engaging with them in ways large and small This approach also demonstrates how science and everyday life often assumed to be different and separate ways of knowing are in fact overlapping aspects of the human experience This story driven exploration is perfect for historians sociologists and philosophers who want to know how scientists go about making robust knowledge of nature and society Precarious Enterprise on the Margins Jessica Gerrard,2017-07-21 This book explores the contemporary conditions of marginal work within the context of persistent unemployment poverty and homelessness in wealthy nations Drawing from research concerning three cities Melbourne San Francisco and London Jessica Gerrard offers a rich account of one of the most precarious informal forms of work selling homeless street press The Big Issue and Street Sheet Combining analyses of sellers everyday work experiences with theorizations of marginality working and learning Gerrard provides much needed insight into contemporary forms of entrepreneurial and precarious work This book demonstrates that those who are unemployed and seemingly unproductive are in fact highly productive They value desire and seek practical work experience whilst also struggling to fulfill the basic needs that many of us take for granted Streets Zeynep Çelik,Diane Favro,Richard Ingersoll,2023-11-15 This collection of twenty one essays written by colleagues and former students of the architectural historian Spiro Kostof 1936 1991 presents case studies on Kostof s model of urban forms and fabrics The essays are remarkably diverse the range includes pre Columbian Inca settlements fourteenth century Cairo nineteenth century New Orleans and twentieth century Tokyo Focusing on individual streets around the world and from different historical periods the collection is an inviting overview of the street as an urban institution The theme of the volume is that the street presents itself as the basic structuring device of a city s form and also as the locus of its civilization Each essay is a detailed investigation of a single urban street with unique historical conditions The authors shared concern regarding anthropological political and technical aspects of street making coalesce into a critical discourse on urban space A fitting tribute to Spiro Kostof this collection will be greatly admired by scholars and general readers alike This collection of twenty one essays written by colleagues and former students of the architectural historian Spiro Kostof 1936 1991 presents case studies on Kostof s model of urban forms and fabrics The essays are remarkably diverse the range inclu Marginality and Modernity Mauro Giardiello,2016-05-31 This book traces the major stages in the evolution of the sociological concept of marginality highlighting in particular the contribution made by Gino Germani Its purpose is to analyze starting with the sociological theory of the early 1960s the progressive maturation of the scientific status of the concept of marginality and to test the theoretical premise that gave rise to Germani s theory of marginality The author begins by examining the contribution of the Chicago School He explores the complex relationship between the theory of marginality and modernization by analyzing North American theses and the criticisms mainly generated in Latin America The goal is to reconstruct Germani s theoretical model of marginality addressing its application to contemporary social and economic conditions Giardiello s analysis is intertwined with two themes that are central to Germani s thought about marginality The first concerns the origin of the concept of social exclusion within sociological thought The second shows how marginality is clearly a phenomenology connected to the contradictions of modernity Germani s paradigm of marginality enables the social scientist to resolve the contradictions between the analytical perspectives that deal with marginality in an objective way and the one that observes it subjectively Vagabonds, Tramps, and Hobos Owen Clayton,2023-08-10 The most enduring version of the hobo that has come down from the so called Golden Age of Tramping 1890s to 1940s is an American cultural icon signifying freedom from restraint and rebellion to the established order while reinforcing conservative messages about American exceptionalism individualism race and gender Vagabonds Tramps and Hobos shows that this pioneer hobo image is a misrepresentation by looking at works created by transient artists and thinkers including travel literature fiction memoir early feminist writing poetry sociology political journalism satire and music This book explores the diversity of meanings that accrue around the hobo and the tramp It is the first analysis to frame transiency within a nineteenth century literary tradition of the vagabond a figure who attempts to travel without money This book provide new ways for scholars to think about the activity and representation of US transiency

A Case for the Case Study Joe R. Feagin,Anthony M. Orum,Gideon Sjoberg,2016-08-01 Since the end of World War II social science research has become increasingly quantitative in nature A Case for the Case Study provides a rationale for an alternative to quantitative research the close investigation of single instances of social phenomena The first section of the book contains an overview of the central methodological issues involved in the use of the case study method Then well known scholars describe how they undertook case study research in order to understand changes in church involvement city life gender roles white collar crimes family structure homelessness and other types of social experience Each contributor confronts several key questions What does the case study tell us that other approaches cannot To what extent can one generalize from the study of a single case or of a highly limited set of cases Does case study work provide the basis for postulating broad principles of social structure and behavior The answers vary but the consensus is that the opportunity to examine certain kinds of social phenomena in depth enables social scientists to advance greatly our empirical understanding of social life The contributors are Leon Anderson Howard M Bahr Theodore Caplow Joe R Feagin Gilbert Geis Gerald Handel Anthony M Orum Andree F Sjoberg Gideon Sjoberg David A Snow Ted R Vaughan R Stephen Warner Christine L Williams and Norma Williams
