The Holocaust And The Revival Of Psychological History:

The Holocaust and the Revival of Psychological History Judith M. Hughes, 2014-10-27 Why did men and women in one of the best educated countries in the Western world set out to get rid of Jews In this book Judith M Hughes focuses on how historians efforts to grapple anew with matters of actors meanings intentions and purposes have prompted a return to psychoanalytically informed ways of thinking Hughes makes her case with fine grained analyses of books by Hugh Trevor Roper Ian Kershaw Daniel Goldhagen Saul Friedl nder Christopher Browning Jan Gross Hannah Arendt and Gitta Sereny All of the authors pose psychological questions the more astute among them shed fresh light on the Holocaust without making the past any less disturbing The Perversion of Holocaust Memory Judith M. Hughes, 2022-02-24 In the early years of the 21st century it appeared that the memory of the Holocaust was secure in Western Europe that in order to gain entry into the European Union the countries of Eastern Europe would have to acknowledge their compatriots complicity in genocide Fifteen year later the landscape looks starkly different Shedding fresh light on these developments The Perversion of Holocaust Memory explores the politicization and distortion of Holocaust remembrance since 1989 This innovative book opens with an analysis of events across Europe which buttressed confidence in the stability of Holocaust memory and brought home the full extent of nations participation in the Final Solution And yet as Judith M Hughes reveals in later chapters mainstream accountability began to crumble as the 21st century progressed German and Jewish suffering was equated anti Semitic rhetoric re entered contemporary discourse populist leaders side stepped inconvenient facts and more recently with the revival of ethno nationalism Holocaust remembrance has been caught in the backlash of the European refugee crisis The four countries analyzed here France Germany Hungary and Poland could all claim to be victims of Nazi Germany the Allies or the Communist Soviet Union but they were also all perpetrators Ultimately it is this complex legacy which Hughes adroitly untangles in her sophisticated study of Holocaust memory in modern Europe History, Memory and Public Life Anna Maerker, Simon Sleight, Adam Sutcliffe, 2018-07-06 History Memory and Public Life introduces readers to key themes in the study of historical memory and its significance by considering the role of historical expertise and understanding in contemporary public reflection on the past Divided into two parts the book addresses both the theoretical and applied aspects of historical memory studies Approaches to history and memory introduces key methodological and theoretical issues within the field such as postcolonialism sites of memory myths of national origins and questions raised by memorialisation and museum presentation Difficult pasts looks at history and memory in practice through a range of case studies on contested complex or traumatic memories including the Northern Ireland Troubles post apartheid South Africa and the Holocaust Examining the intersection between history and memory from a wide range of perspectives and supported by guidance on further reading and online resources this book is ideal for students of history as well as those working within the broad interdisciplinary field of memory studies Witnessing the Holocaust Judith M. Holocaust presents the autobiographical writings including diaries and autobiographical fiction of six Holocaust survivors who lived through and chronicled the Nazi genocide Drawing extensively on the works of Victor Klemperer Ruth Kluger Michal Glowinski Primo Levi Imre Kert sz and B la Zsolt this books conveys with vivid detail the persecution of the Jews from the beginning of the Third Reich until its very end It gives us a sense both of what the Holocaust meant to the wider community swept up in the horrors and what it was like for the individual to weather one of the most shocking events in history Survivors and witnesses disappear and history not memory becomes the instrument for recalling the past Judith M Hughes secures a place for narratives by those who experienced the Holocaust in person This compelling text is a vital read for all students of the Holocaust and Holocaust memory Rethinking Hellenistic Historiography Lisa Irene Hau,2025-03-31 This book offers a new examination of the so called tragic historiographers Duris and Phylarchus as well as the 2nd century BCE historiographer Agatharchides using Polybius as a foil throughout Lisa Irene Hau investigates the fragments and discusses the characteristics of each historical work in terms of themes style and historiographical method The analysis shows that these three historiographers deliberately wrote a different type of history from Ephorus and Theopompus aiming to engage the reader sensually and emotionally in the historical narrative Hau suggests immersive historiography as a more fitting term than tragic history and argues that the purpose of this experiential engagement of the readers was didactic to teach them what it had been like to live through events of the past In the second half of the book immersive historiography is placed in the context of ancient literary theory Peripatetic philosophy and Hellenistic poetry and visual art Applying the theory of immersion to ancient texts and placing these tragic historians in their contemporary cultural context provides a new and innovative way of understanding of Hellenistic historiography Emerging Trends in Third-Generation Holocaust Literature Alan L. Berger,Lucas F.W. Wilson,2023-08-08 Emerging Trends in Third Generation Holocaust Literature offers fresh approaches to understanding how grandchildren of Holocaust survivors and perpetrators treat their traumatic legacies The contributors to this volume present a two fold perspective that the past continues to live in the lives of the third generation and that artistic responses to trauma assume a variety of genres including film graphic novels and literature This generation is acculturated yet set apart from their peers by virtue of their traumatic inheritance The chapters raise several key questions How is it possible to negotiate the difference between what Daniel Mendelson terms proximity and distance How can the post post memorial generation both be faithful to Holocaust memory and embrace a message of hope Can this generation play a constructive educational role And finally why should society care At a time when the lessons and legacies of Auschwitz are either banalized or under assault the authors in this volume have a message which ideally should serve to morally center those who live after the event Beyond Auschwitz Michael L. Morgan,2001 This book offers a comprehensive overview of post Holocaust Jewish theology quoting from and interpreting all of the significant American writings of the movement 1999 Susan Sarah Cohen,2013-02-18 No detailed description available for 1999

Edwards's Philosophy of History Avihu Zakai, 2009-02-09 Avihu Zakai analyzes Jonathan Edwards s redemptive mode of historical thought in the context of the Enlightenment As theologian and philosopher Edwards has long been a towering figure in American intellectual history Nevertheless and despite Edwards s intense engagement with the nature of time and the meaning of history there has been no serious attempt to explore his philosophy of history Offering the first such exploration Zakai considers Edwards s historical thought as a reaction in part to the varieties of Enlightenment historical narratives and their growing disregard for theistic considerations Zakai analyzes the ideological origins of Edwards s insistence that the process of history depends solely on God s redemptive activity in time as manifested in a series of revivals

throughout history reading this doctrine as an answer to the threat posed to the Christian theological teleology of history by the early modern emergence of a secular conception of history and the modern legitimation of historical time In response to the Enlightenment refashioning of secular historical time and its growing emphasis on human agency Edwards strove to re establish God s preeminence within the order of time Against the de Christianization of history and removal of divine power from the historical process he sought to re enthrone God as the author and lord of history and thus to re enchant the historical world Placing Edwards s historical thought in its broadest context this book will be welcomed by those who study early modern history American history or religious culture and experience in America Coping with War-Induced Stress Zahava Solomon, 2013-11-11 In the wake of an earlier book Solomon 1993 this new work Coping with War Induced Stress The Gulf War and the Israeli Response promises to make Zahava Solomon a modern maven with respect to the psychological effects of war Dr Solomon is a high ranking officer serving as a psychiatric epidemiologist in the Mental Health Department of the Israeli Defense Forces Medical Corps She also teaches at Tel Aviv University The earlier book dealt with the reactions of the Israeli Defense Forces to the 1982 war in Lebanon which divided the population of Israel concerning its wisdom and justification The new book deals with the emotional consequences of the United Nations effort against Iraq after its invasion of Kuwait Because Israel agreed not to participate actively so as not to endanger the fragile Arab coalition against Iraq it was in a sense a nonwar as Solomon refers to it yet with many features of a war Although they had quite limited casualties largely in the Tel Aviv area the Israelis faced the actuality of damaging Scud missile attacks and the threat that these missiles could not only be targeted to much of Israel but also carry poison gas to other Israeli cities Solomon has written a fascinating book about this crisis in Israeli life

The Cambridge World History of Genocide: Volume 3, Genocide in the Contemporary Era, 1914-2020 Ben Kiernan, Wendy Lower, Norman Naimark, Scott Straus, 2023-05-04 Volume III examines the most well known century of genocide the twentieth century Opening with a discussion on the definitions of genocide and ethnic cleansing and their relationships to modernity it continues with a survey of the genocide studies field racism and antisemitism The four parts cover the impacts of Racism Total War Imperial Collapse and Revolution the crises of World War Two the Cold War and Globalization Twenty eight scholars with expertise in specific regions document thirty genocides from 1918 to 2021 in Europe the Middle East Africa Asia and Latin America The cases range from the Armenian Genocide to Maoist China from the Holocaust to Stalin s Ukraine from Indonesia to Guatemala Biafra Bangladesh Cambodia Bosnia and Rwanda and finally the contemporary fate of the Rohingyas in Myanmar and the ISIS slaughter of Yazidis in Iraq The volume ends with a chapter on the strategies for genocide prevention moving forward

Revivalistics Ghil'ad Zuckermann, 2020 In this book Ghil ad Zuckermann introduces revivalistics a new trans disciplinary field of enquiry surrounding language reclamation revitalization and reinvigoration Applying lessons from the Hebrew revival of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries to contemporary endangered languages Zuckermann takes readers along a fascinating and multifaceted journey into language revival and provides new insights into language genesis Beginning with a critical analysis of Israeli the language resulting from the Hebrew revival Zuckermann s radical theory contradicts conventional accounts of the Hebrew revival and challenges the family tree model of historical linguistics Revivalistics demonstrates how grammatical cross fertilization with the revivalists mother tongues is inevitable in the case of successful revival languages The second part of the book then applies these lessons from the Israeli language to revival movements in Australia and globally describing the why and how of revivalistics With examples from the Barngarla Aboriginal language of South Australia Zuckermann proposes ethical aesthetic and utilitarian reasons for language revival and offers practical methods for reviving languages Based on years of the author s research fieldwork and personal experience with language revivals all over the globe Revivalistics offers ground breaking theoretical and pragmatic contributions to the field of language reclamation revitalization and reinvigoration

When History Returns Deborah P. Britzman, 2024-05-01 When History Returns brings together psychoanalytic theories of learning with the antinomies of social strife From a psychoanalytic perspective history returns through transitional scenes of inheriting a past one could not make experiencing a present affected by what came before and facing a future one can neither know nor predict Taking such scenes as the subject of education Deborah P Britzman provides new approaches and vocabulary for conceptualizing experience and understanding as expressed in psychoanalysis literature film clinical case studies and warm pedagogy Britzman argues that novel quests for humane responsibility take hold in the fallout of understanding in the feel of history in imaginative dialogues and missed encounters and in searches for friendship belonging and affiliation Each chapter charts these quests in contemporary education carrying readers into the heart of learning and the emotional situations that urge the transitions of difficult knowledge into care for thinking and the questions that follow

The Contemporary Relevance of

History Salo Wittmayer Baron, 1986 This book explores the puzzling phenomenon of new veiling practices among lower middle class women in Cairo Egypt Although these women are part of a modernizing middle class they also voluntarily adopt a traditional symbol of female subordination How can this paradox be explained An explanation emerges which reconceptualizes what appears to be reactionary behavior as a new style of political struggle as accommodating protest These women most of them clerical workers in the large government bureaucracy are ambivalent about working outside the home considering it a change which brings new burdens as well as some important benefits At the same time they realize that leaving home and family is creating an intolerable situation of the erosion of their social status and the loss of their traditional identity The new veiling expresses women's protest against this MacLeod argues that the symbolism of the new veiling emerges from this tense subcultural dilemma involving elements of both resistance and acquiescence The
