Space in Modern Egyptian Fiction Ramadan Yasmine Ramadan, 2019-11-01 In 1960s Egypt a group of writers exploded onto the literary scene transforming the aesthetic landscape Space in Modern Egyptian Fiction explores how this literary generation presents a marked shift in the representation of rural urban and exilic space reflecting a disappointment with the project of the postcolonial nation state in Egypt Combining a sociological approach to literature with detailed close readings Yasmine Ramadan explores the spatial representations that embodied this shift within the Egyptian literary scene and the disappearance of an idealized nation in the Egyptian novel This study provides a robust examination of the emergence and establishment of some of the most significant writers in modern Egyptian literature and their influence across six decades while also tracing the social economic political and aesthetic changes that marked this period in Egypt's contemporary history

Sonallah Ibrahim Starkey Paul Starkey, 2016-06-02 This volume is designed as an introduction to the contemporary Egyptian author Sonallah Ibrahim one of the most important Arabic novelists of the modern era with an unrivalled reputation for independence and integrity among contemporary Egyptian writers The first study in any language devoted exclusively to Sonallah Ibrahim the volume discusses each of the author's novels individually beginning with the seminal Tilka al-ra'ha That Smell 1966 and ending with al-Jalid Ice 2011 Each work is discussed individually in its literary social historical and political context The volume traces the evolution of Sonallah Ibrahim's work in terms both of their themes and of their literary technique and concludes with an attempt at an overall evaluation of the author's contribution to the contemporary Egyptian novel Paul Starkey's account shows how innovative and stylistically rich the Arabic novel has become over a period of some fifty years beyond the better known work of writers such as Naguib Mahfouz and Yusuf Idris As such the volume will serve as an introduction not only to the individual author but also to the development of Egyptian and more generally Arabic literature over the last half century

Palestinian Political Organizations in Israeli Prisons Alyssa G. Bernstein,2024-06-16 Palestinian Political Organizations in Israeli Prisons examines the evolution and changes within the Palestinian Prisoners Movement and the structural opportunities and constraints that inform collective resistance today Drawing on observation based fieldwork and over 40 interviews with ex prisoners and additional interviews with lawyers and advocates this book presents a sociological account of Palestinian prisoners in Israel an important reflection of the wider Israeli Palestinian conflict The Oslo Accords the peace agreements between the Palestinian Liberation Organization and Israel transformed not only Palestinian politics but the entire prison environment By exploring issues including the specific characteristics of women s resistance the effects of the Islamicization new hunger strike strategies consumerism within the prison parenting children and escapes Palestinian Political Organizations in Israeli Prisons offers a fresh analysis of political resistance in Israeli prisons Applying a social movement approach and drawing comparisons to other politically motivated prisoner groups the book traces the effects of changes from the Oslo Accords through to today including the Second Intifada the split between Hamas and Fatah the co option of the Palestinian Authority and increasingly systematic prison management explaining how these factors have affected life for Palestinian prisoners in Israeli prisons and influence conflicts today

Prison Food An-Sofie Vanhouche,2022-06-11 Based on the lived experiences of incarcerated persons and staff this book explores the symbolic significance of prison foodways to normalization autonomy identity construction power group formation and security The book also traces the rationalization s that policy makers attach to prison food from the water and bread diet of the 18th century the contested abolition of alcohol consumption to the current fear surrounding the spread of COVID 19 through food distribution in prisons The argument is developed that prison food policies have always reflected how Belgian governments have treated imprisoned persons The emphasis on Belgian prisons and the discussions on prison foodways situated on a micro and macro level add a unique flavour to prison food scholarship by providing a deeper understanding of a penal culture outside the dominant tradition of Anglo Saxon and Nordic studies. Consequently, the book provides a nuanced conception of prison foodways for penologists, sociologists, those with interests in wider prison policy, and those working on the socio-cultural role of food in closed environments.
