Anatomy of the New Testament Robert A. Spivey, Dwight Moody Smith, 1969 On the assumption that the reader will want to know what the New Testament is about what its authors intended to say we have sought to direct his attention to the text of the New Testament itself In order to help him come to a more than superficial or second hand understanding we have dealt extensively with representative texts from the various New Testament books Working outward from these texts we have then endeavored to display and illumine the character and movement of the different writings Preface

Peter in Early Christianity Helen K. Bond , Larry W. Hurtado, 2015 Long overshadowed by the apostle Paul Peter has received increased scholarly attention of late Building on that resurgence of interest nineteen internationally prominent scholars of early Christian history examine and reassess the historical Peter and his significance in Christian texts from the first three centuries Giving due attention to archaeological data and recent scholarship the contributors offer a comprehensive view of Peter through analysis of both New Testament texts and later noncanonical literature Markus Bockmuehl concludes the volume by considering present day questions about the role of Peter popes and church leadership

The Adaptable Jesus of the Fourth Gospel

Jason S. Sturdevant,2015-09-07 In The Adaptable Jesus of the Fourth Gospel Jason S Sturdevant argues that the Gospel of John portrays Jesus as an adaptable teacher who accommodates to different people in various ways to a singular end to bring each to faith In the same way the Logos accommodates to humanity via the incarnation Adaptability serves as both an interpersonal and universal category Early Christian interpretations of John especially that of John Chrysostom describe the Jesus of John by echoing characterizations of the ideal Greco Roman pedagogue adapting to his diverse students By looking to such interpretations as well as illumination from the milieu of the Fourth Evangelist Jason S Sturdevant provides a new lens through which to understand the characterization of the Johannine Jesus The Christ-Centered Expositor Tony

Merida,2016-10-01 The Christ Centered Expositor by pastor and preaching professor Tony Merida provides a comprehensive overview of effective expository preaching that begins with the inner life of the expositor and then moves to the essential elements of sermon preparation and delivery Ideal for pastors teachers and students The Christ Centered Expositor will equip you for greater faithfulness to God his Word and his mission The People of God Trevor Joy,Spence Shelton,2014-05

The authors draw on experience from their time leading two of the fastest growing congregations in America to give churches principles they can apply in a congregation of 50 or 15 000 Gospel Discipleship Participant Guide Michelle J. Morris,2020-03-31 There was a time when discipleship was taken for granted It was assumed that people could be persuaded to believe and that each person would step into the path that took them to Jesus That assumption is no longer valid As early as the Gospels Jesus and his biographers recognize that each person brings experience to the journey which travels through different times and places The discipleship path for each individual disciple is assessed and determined through this Gospel Discipleship Participant Guide while the Gospel Discipleship Congregation Guide serves as the implementation guide for church leaders It also assesses the discipleship path for the congregation as a whole By understanding what type of disciple you are participants in Gospel Discipleship can clarify the path they need to walk Some people love to go on mission trips some people really thrive learning from a great teacher some people connect to God through painting and music and some people just want to have a cup of coffee and talk about life and eventually get around to talking about Jesus Participants in Gospel Discipleship can be set free from the guilt of not feeling like a real disciple because they don t feel called to experience the journey the same way as everyone else Instead participants can become the disciple Jesus wants them to be They can spend their valuable time and energy living and walking on the path where Jesus is calling them to follow
