British Women Writing Fiction Abby H.P. Werlock, 2000-02-09 Original essays by American and British scholars offer a reader friendly introduction to the work of Angela Carter Doris Lessing and a dozen other British women writers British women in the second half of the 20th century have produced a body of work that is as diverse as it is entertaining This book offers an informal jargon free introduction to the fiction of sixteen contemporary writers either brought up or now living in England from Muriel Spark to Jeanette Winterson British Women Writing Fiction presents a balanced view comprising women writing since the 1950s and 1960s those who attracted critical attention during the 1970s and 1980s and those who have burst upon the literary scene more recently including African Caribbean and African women The essays show how all of these writers treat British subjects and themes sometimes from radically different perspectives and how those who are daughters of immigrants see themselves as women writing on the margins of society Abby Werlock's introduction explores the historical and aesthetic factors that have contributed to the genre showing how even those writers who began in a traditional vein have created experimental work The contributors provide complete bibliographies of each writer's works and selected bibliographies of criticism Exceptional both in its breadth of subjects covered and critical approaches taken this book provides essential background that will enable readers to appreciate the singular merits of each writer It offers an approach toward better understanding favorite authors and provides a way to become acquainted with new ones

The Greatest Novels of Theodore Dreiser Theodore Dreiser, 2023-12-15 The Greatest Novels of Theodore Dreiser presents a compendium of the author's most significant works encapsulating his profound exploration of social realities and the human condition Dreiser's literary style is characterized by naturalism illuminating the struggles of his characters against the backdrop of an indifferent society This collection includes seminal novels such as Sister Carrie and An American Tragedy where he delves into themes of ambition desire and the often harsh consequences of societal expectations all rendered in rich evocative prose that reflects the moral complexities of early 20th century America Theodore Dreiser born in 1871 to a large family in Terre Haute Indiana emerged as a pivotal figure in American literature His tumultuous upbringing influenced by both poverty and ambition fostered a keen observation of societal inequities Dreiser's career was marked by a commitment to unveiling the darker sides of the American Dream which compelled him to craft narratives that challenge complacency and provoke critical thought about morality success and individual agency This collection is essential for readers seeking to understand not only Dreiser's impactful contributions to American literature but also the socio economic landscapes of his time Scholars and general readers alike will find themselves engrossed in the compelling characters and intricate narratives that redefine our understanding of ambition and human frailty

The Apprenticeship Novel Randolph P. Shaffner, 1984 The idea that a young person can become adept in the art of life by passing through definite stages until at last he becomes a master lives at the core of the apprenticeship novel Recognized among German critics as the Bildungsroman this type of novel has yet to be adequately defined on a grand scale for the English reader despite nearly two centuries of its development In an attempt to describe the apprenticeship novel as a modifiable type in Western literature Mr Shaffner combines a theoretical stance with analyses of three concrete examples drawn from over a hundred potential candidates

The British and Irish Novel Since 1960 James Acheson, 1991-09-03 The essays in this collection survey the work of some of the most important British and Irish novelists of today They not only consider afresh the work of novelists who established their reputations before 1960 such as Doris Lessing and William Golding they also discuss the work of more recent novelists among them Kazuo Ishiguro Angela Carter and Graham Swift The contributors are drawn from various parts of the English speaking world and provide a variety of original perspectives on the novelists concerned
