Ecotourism Development Ventures in Manipur: Green Skill Development and Livelihood Mission Arambam

Sanatomba Singh, 2021-06-18 Mother Nature has endowed Manipur with enormous ecotourism potentials. We offer immense possibilities for the growth of ecotourism and regional business. Manipur, blended with the majestic Loktak Lake and adorned with a variety of breathtaking locations, dramatic landscapes, pristine forests, rare wildlife, and an unmatched cultural diversity, our State has lots to offer to a traveler. Visited Manipur especially during the marvelous Manipur Sangai Festival, which was started as a National Calendar Event from 2010 onwards and celebrates from 21st to 30th November every year. The present work relates to the promotion of ecotourism in Manipur and it is the outcome of my experiences gained during my participation as a resource person in the Training Programme of Certificate Courses on Nature Conservation Livelihood Ecotourism organized by the ENVIS HUB Manipur Directorate of Environment and Forests, Government of Manipur, 2018. Based on this training module, the present treatise is written with a view to enlightening the enterprising youths of Manipur to become skilled entrepreneurs and excellent ecotourism service providers through their active participation in the promotion of ecotourism in the State of Manipur. An attempt has also been made to explore and discover the huge untapped ecotourism potential areas of Manipur.

International Handbook on Ecotourism Roy Ballantyne, Jan Packer, 2013-01-01 Roy and Jan have assembled a timely snapshot of our current understanding of ecotourism both as a concept worthy of scientific inquiry and as an increasingly significant segment of global commerce and industry. A terrific piece of work. Sam Ham, University of Idaho, US. In the 30 or so years since it became established in the tourism literature and in tourism practice, ecotourism has attracted as many proponents as opponents. This Handbook now brings together some of the leading scholars worldwide in this field to explore the current position of this form of tourism. In doing so, it offers serious critiques, it explores meanings and paradoxes, it offers best practices, and it looks to the future. It is the Handbook for one of tourism's fastest growing and controversial sectors. David Airey, University of Surrey, UK. This is a most welcome and needed book. With a very strong editorial team and contributing authors, the Handbook covers all the key issues of ecotourism. It cuts through the confusion surrounding the much misunderstood concept of ecotourism, clearly dealing with definitions, concepts, and research issues. The Handbook is particularly welcome for its focus on the visitor experience, a strength of the editors, and for clearly linking the theory of ecotourism with practice in the field. Christopher Cooper, Oxford Brookes University, UK. This Handbook brings together contributions from over forty international experts in the field of ecotourism. It provides a critical review and discussion of current issues and concepts, it challenges readers to consider the boundaries of what ecotourism is and could be. The Handbook provides practical information regarding the business of ecotourism, insights into ecotourist behaviour, and visitor experiences and reflections on the practice of ecotourism in a range of different contexts. The Handbook is designed to
