The Making Of A Mediator Developing Artistry In Practice:

The Making of a Mediator Michael D. Lang, Alison Taylor, 2012-07-18 The Making of a Mediator goes beyond the basics of mediation process In this essential resource expert mediator and teacher Michael Lang outlines his innovative model of artistry in professional practice that results from the understanding of and connection between reflective practice and interactive process Together with Allison Taylor they have created a landmark book that offers conflict resolution professionals the theories principles practices and ideas for developing true artistry in mediation Mediation & Popular Culture

Jennifer Schulz, 2020-03-09 This book examines mediation topics such as impartiality self determination and fair outcomes through popular culture lenses Popular television shows and award winning films are used as illustrative examples to illuminate under represented mediation topics such as feelings and expert intuition conflicts of interest and repeat business and deception and caucusing The author also employs research from Australia Belgium Canada China Denmark France Germany Greece India Israel Japan the Netherlands New Zealand Singapore South Africa Spain the United Kingdom and the United States of America to demonstrate that real and reel mediation may have more in common than we think How mediation is imagined in popular culture compared to how professors teach it and how mediators practise it provides important affective ethical legal personal and pedagogical insights relevant for mediators lawyers professors and students and may even help develop mediator identity The Fugitive Identity of Mediation Debbie De Girolamo, 2013-07-18

Despite much having been written about what mediation is direct observations of commercial mediations are limited This book grants an opportunity to observe mediation in action and also provides external commentary about the actions observed The book approaches Mediation ethnographically as a social process that is informed by structures rules and norms that colour the environment within which it operates Through the ethnographic method a process leading to negotiated order is examined baring its elements identifying its influences and studying the movement to order The result is the reconceptualization of mediation The mediator is invited into the negotiation as third party intervener He creates the process of mediation defining the process by his actions which ultimately merges mediator with process This book provides a window to the lived experience of participants to mediation it explores their understandings of and interactions within a process they have experienced together and demonstrates how mediation is a process inextricably linked to negotiation The Fugitive Identity of Mediation will be of interest to scholars mediators parties who participate in the process and to those active in public policy discourse Mediation in Family Disputes Marian Roberts, 2016-04-29 This is the authoritative textbook on family mediation As well as mediators this work will be indispensable for practitioners and scholars across a wide range of fields including social work and law It draws on a wide cross disciplinary theoretical literature and on the author s extensive and continuing practice experience It encompasses developments in policy research and practice in the UK and beyond Roberts presents mediation as an aid to joint decision making in the context of a range of family disputes notably those involving children Mediation is seen as a process of intervention distinct from legal social work and therapeutic practice drawing on a distinctive body of knowledge across disciplinary fields including anthropology psychology and negotiation theory Incorporating empirical evidence the book emphasises the value of mediation in mitigating the harmful effects of family breakdown and conflict First published in 1988 as a pioneering work this fourth edition has been fully updated to incorporate legal and policy developments in the UK and in Europe new sociological and philosophical perspectives on respect justice and conflict and international research and practice innovations

Mediation Ethics Rachael Field,Jonathan Crowe,2020-05-29 Traditional ideas of mediator neutrality and impartiality have come under increasing attack in recent decades There is however a lack of consensus on what should replace them Mediation Ethics offers a response to this question developing a new theory of mediation that emphasises its nature as a relational process

Wisdom Learning Wendelin Küpers,Olen Gunnlaugson,2016-12-01 In traditional business circles wisdom is viewed with a certain scepticism which is in part due to its historical associations with wisdom traditions and spiritual cultures However in business today wisdom is emerging not only as a viable but also a necessary organizational and management practice In particular practical wisdom is being updated and retranslated for today s issues and concerns in organizations In recent years leadership and organizational studies have initiated important changes in the way in which business as usual is conducted In response to the increasingly complex and uncertain conditions of our international business environment a growing community of scholar practitioners are pushing the boundaries of traditional organizational and leadership thinking and acting making inroads into processes and applications of practical wisdom and ways of wise leading and managing Given the unprecedented levels of challenges dynamics and uncertainties that today s organizations are exposed to there is a need for a more integrative and sustainable approach to managing Following the need for a reconsideration and revival of the meaning of wisdom the editors explore vitalizing possibilities for the learning of wise practices in organizing and leading This expansive range of domains where wisdom is currently being explored suggests a promising number of perspectives and possibilities for future inquiries and explorations into the nexus of wisdom and organization leadership management education and learning that benefits from cross disciplinary synergies This book will be of interest to those seeking to understand the growing significance of wisdom in relation to learning and teaching especially in business and management education

Sustainable Peace in the Twenty-First Century Dilip Vasudeo Kulkarni,2017-02-01 Why haven t we been successful in finding sustainable solutions is a question that this book attempts to address This book questions the appropriateness of current approaches to international conflict mediation peacebuilding and whether today s practitioners have the necessary patience passion and training to manage twenty first century conflicts This book also examines whether the current approaches to the mediation of international conflict and peacebuilding as well as the education in these fields effectively consider the influence of the post Cold War environment and whether they address sub national conflicts caused by the continually increasing social inequality within societies among parties with different cultural religious racial ethnic and linguistic backgrounds The narratives of the lived experiences of this book s contributors are used to illustrate the challenges associated with achieving sustained global peace in the twenty first century Using the author s conversations with the contributors to the book as well as educators this book suggests that a universally adopted answer to the book s underlying question has not yet been established Therefore the objective of this book is to start a public conversation about reforming the current education and practices used in the mediation of international conflicts and peacebuilding The author hopes that these reforms will enable practitioners in integrating the message of the youth uprisings across the globe in finding sustainable resolutions to social inequality based conflicts within their societies and among countries across the globe As all of the citizens of the world continue to live in the midst of conflicts erupting across the globe this book brings to the surface the urgent and acute need for finding better approaches to address this century s social inequality based conflicts This book seeks to bring hope and to energize individuals with different cultural religious ethnic racial and linguistic backgrounds as well as individuals with different professional and personal lived experiences to collaboratively work together to achieve sustainable global peace The author hopes that this book will foster among students educators and practitioners a better understanding of international conflict mediators approaches for accommodating the inter relationship between culture and the mediation of international conflicts
