Intercultural Translations of Japan in Western Media Frank Jacob, Bruno Surace, 2021-03-02 Our images of non Western cultures are often based on stereotypes that are replicated over the years These stereotypes often appear in popular media and are responsible for a pre set image of otherness The present book investigates these processes and the media representation of otherness especially as an artificial construct based on stereotypes and their repetition in the case of Japan Western Japaneseness thereby illustrates how the Western image of Japan in popular media is rather a construct that in a way replicated itself instead of a more serious encounter with a foreign and different cultural context This book will be of great value to students and academics who hold interest in media studies Japanese studies and cultural studies It will also appeal to a broader audience with interests in Japan more generally Imagining the Unimaginable Glyn

Morgan, 2020-01-23 Imagining the Unimaginable examines popular fiction's treatment of the Holocaust in the dystopian and alternate history genres of speculative fiction analyzing the effectiveness of the genre's major works as a lens through which to view the most prominent historical trauma of the 20th century It surveys a range of British and American authors from science fiction pulp to Pulitzer Prize winners building on scholarship across disciplines including Holocaust studies trauma studies and science fiction studies The conventional discourse around the Holocaust is one of the unapproachable unknowable and the unimaginable The Holocaust has been compared to an earthquake another planet another universe a void It has been said to be beyond language or else have its own incomprehensible language beyond art and beyond thought The othering of the event has spurred the phenomenon of non realist Holocaust literature engaging with speculative fiction and its history of the uncanny the grotesque and the inhuman This book examines the most common forms of nonmimetic Holocaust fiction the dystopia and the alternate history while firmly positioning these forms within a broader pattern of non realist engagements with the Holocaust
