

To Kill A Mockingbird

Chapter 18:

1. How old are Jem and Scout now?
Jem is 12, Scout is 8.
2. What connection does Scout make that causes her to cry?
She connects the mob at the jail and the mob dog. Both were poised to attack.
3. What subtle change does Scout notice in Atticus?
"It was a quiet digging in, never outright irritation." He is annoyed with Aunt Alexandra.
4. How does Atticus explain "mob" to the children?
"A mob's always made up of people, no matter what. Mr. Cunningham was part of a mob last night, but he was still a man. Every mob in every little Southern town is always made up of people you know—doesn't say much for them, does it?"
5. What is Miss Maudie's reaction to everyone wanting to go to the trial?
"It's terrible, watching a poor devil on trial for his life. Look at all these folks, it's like a Roman carnival."
"Just because it's public, I don't have to go, do I?"
6. What is peculiar about Mr. Dolphus Raymond?
He prefers the company of blacks to whites. He drinks out of a sack and is always "half-drunk."
7. Why does Jem say the "mixed children" are sad?
"They don't belong anywhere. Colored folks won't have 'em because they're half white; white folks won't have 'em 'cause they're colored, so they're just in-between, don't belong anywhere."
8. What does Scout overhear about Atticus's defeating Tom Robinson? Does it give her any comfort?
The court appointed Atticus to defend Tom. It comforts her a little, but it mostly confuses her. Why didn't Atticus tell them this so that she wasn't criticized?
9. What do the children sit with in the courtroom?
They sit with Reverend Spivey and all the other black people, up in the balcony.
