Theological Education - If We Let It Kenda Creasy Dean, Christy Lang Hearlson, 2016 Since 1993 forty nine theological seminaries have created opportunities for high school students to participate in on campus High School Theology Programs

HSTPs that invite them to engage in serious biblical and theological study Many of the young people who take part in these programs go on to become pastoral or lay leaders in their churches What has made these programs so successful especially given the well documented crisis of faith among young people today In this book thirteen contributors many of whom have created or led one of these innovative theology programs investigate answers to this question They examine the pedagogical practices the HSTPs have in common and explore how they are contributing to the leadership of the church They then show how the lessons gleaned from these successful programs can help churches denominations and seminaries reimagine both theological education and youth ministry

Suffer Less in Life and Work Vincent Dodd, 2023-01-31 It can seem we are more divided than ever in many aspects of life and we too often still feel empty while pushing ourselves to keep up Suffer Less in Life and yet life is also an amazing and unfortunately short but powerful journey So yes I do find the good the humor and the laughter as often as I can My answer to the slightly differently worded question is the same but it starts with I am not always happy I have seen inside of us including myself that there is a dark place between alive and dead that we sometimes fall into for a period That place is emptiness loneliness paralyzing fear anxiety depression anger resentment jealousy even blame and many addictions It is my hope that we do not have to stay in that undead but not alive place for long We arrive there when our feelings or perceptions and sometimes the actual reality of our life hit a difficult span of more bad than good This causes the rough to cover more of our spirit than the light of goodness can illuminate In this day and time that unalive place is happening to us all too often We do have valid reasons to feel overwhelmed depressed anxious and to question human and social behaviors But you are alive and unless chronic or severe these painful aware and sensitive human experiences have the potential to enrich our lives It requires a cautious balance As pressures mount this can be difficult but acknowledging how tough and scary it all can be at times is a great healthy start Total Well-being, An Issue of Anesthesiology Clinics,E-Book Alison J.

Brainard,Lyndsay M. Hoy,2022-07-06 In this issue of Anesthesiology Clinics guest editors Drs Alison J Brainard and Lyndsay M Hoy oversee the topic of Total Well being Articles in this issue highlight perspectives from across multiple subsets of anesthesiology including nutrition arts and humanities coaching and the inequalities of medicine The editors goal is that readers will come away inspired informed and excited to create an approach for total well being that can be tailored to their workplace and lives Contains 19 practice oriented topics including women in anesthesiology parenting lactation in anesthesia intensivists and wellness post pandemic early career physician burnout integrating antiracism into MedEd with health humanities program and more Provides in depth clinical reviews on total well being offering actionable insights for clinical practice Presents the latest information on this timely focused topic under the leadership of experienced editors in the field Authors synthesize and distill the latest research and practice guidelines to create clinically significant topic based reviews

The Situational Mentor Gill Lane,2016-02-24 Because the mentoring process involves a number of distinct stages a wide range of skills are needed throughout the process and these skills are situational In other words a skilled mentor understands the principles of mentoring but is also able to use appropriate skills according to the person with whom they are working and the stage they have reached in the relationship In addition different types of mentoring programme will demand a skills set particular to each As with many other areas of development a mix of the theoretical and the practical is needed to ensure that programmes and relationships achieve their potential In The Situational Mentor An International Review of Competences and Capabilities in Mentoring David Clutterbuck and Gill Lane have brought together contributions from leading international academics and practitioners to define the key skills involved in mentoring and explore how these may be tailored to ensure a successful outcome in all instances Advanced Training for Trainers in Europe (ATTE). Lynne Chisholm,Council of Europe,2006-01-01 Advanced Training for Trainers in Europe ATTE has been developed and organised within the Partnership Programme on European Youth Worker Training run by the European Commission and the Council of Europe and it is innovative in its approach methodology structure long term perspective and intensity The Partnership Programme aims to contribute to quality in youth worker training at European level with an emphasis on integrating European Citizenship in youth work The second volume of this publication sets out an external evaluation of the pilot course which ran from November 2001 to October 2003 The first volume of this title on curriculum description is available separately ISBN 9789287157928 The Black Church and Hip Hop Culture Emmett G. Price III, 2011-11-10 Throughout the 1950s and 1960s the Black Church stood as the stronghold of the Black Community fighting for equality and economic self sufficiency and challenging its body to be self determined and self aware Hip Hop Culture grew from disenfranchised urban youth who felt that they had no support system or resources Impassioned with the same urgent desires for survival and hope that their parents and grandparents had carried these youth forged their way from the bottom of America's belly one rhyme at a time For many young people Hip Hop Culture is a supplement or even an alternative to the weekly dose of Sunday morning faith In this collection of provocative essays leading thinkers preachers and scholars from around the country confront both the Black Church and the Hip Hop Generation to realize their shared responsibilities to one another and the greater society Arranged into three sections this volume addresses key issues in the debate between two of the most significant institutions of Black Culture The first part From Civil Rights to Hip Hop explores the transition from one generation to another through the transmission or lack thereof of legacy and heritage Part II Hip Hop Culture and the Black Church in Dialogue explores the numerous ways in which the conversation is already occurring from sermons to theoretical examinations and spiritual ponderings Part III Gospel Rap Holy Hip Hop and the Hip Hop Matrix clarifies the perspectives and insights of practitioners scholars and activists who explore various expressions of faith and the diversity of locations where these expressions take place In The Black Church and Hip Hop Culture pastors ministers theologians educators and laypersons wrestle with the duties of providing timely commentary critical analysis and in some cases practical strategies toward forgiveness healing restoration and reconciliation With inspiring reflections and empowering discourse this collection demonstrates why and how the Black Church must re engage in the lives of those who comprise the Hip Hop Generation
