top it all off do you feel guilty for feeling bad Rachel Norman gets you mama She knows how much you love your kids And how day after day you put your family s needs first which means your own needs come last Or don t come at all Rachel used to be a mom who spent her days weary anxious and guilt laden She had five kids in five years lived on three different continents and then was blindsided by a devastating health diagnosis Neglecting her own physical spiritual mental and emotional needs for so long in an effort to be a selfless mother had left her utterly depleted And physically unwell Then she began asking a question she d never considered before Could it be that taking good care of myself is not actually selfish but maybe just maybe something a responsible adult does In this countercultural book Rachel takes some weight off your shoulders by offering hands on rubber meets the road strategies to cultivate a life you aren t trying to constantly escape teaching you to discover and claim your own limits and boundaries so you can be a calm resilient peaceful mother showing you how to shape your daily life and values around the few things that really matter and how to let the rest go If mama ain t happy ain t nobody happy But when mama is at peace Everyone benefits Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001
