To the Letter Simon Garfield, 2014-11-04 The New York Times bestselling author of Just My Type and On the Map offers an ode to letter writing and its possible salvation in the digital age Few things are as exciting and potentially life changing as discovering an old letter And while etiquette books still extol the practice letter writing seems to be disappearing amid a flurry of e mails texting and tweeting The recent decline in letter writing marks a cultural shift so vast that in the future historians may divide time not between BC and AD but between the eras when people wrote letters and when they did not So New York Times bestselling author Simon Garfield asks Can anything be done to revive a practice that has dictated and tracked the progress of civilization for more than five hundred years In To the Letter Garfield traces the fascinating history of letter writing from the love letter and the business letter to the chain letter and the letter of recommendation He provides a tender critique of early letter writing manuals and analyzes celebrated correspondence from Erasmus to Princess Diana He also considers the role that letters have played as a literary device from Shakespeare to the epistolary novel all the rage in the eighteenth century and alive and well today with bestsellers like The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society At a time when the decline of letter writing appears to be irreversible Garfield is the perfect candidate to inspire bibliophiles to put pen to paper and create a form of expression emotion and tactile delight we may clasp to our heart The Book Club

Mary Alice Monroe, 2013-12-01 Mary Alice Monroe invites you to meet five remarkable characters as she explores the power of friendship with tenderness honesty and understanding On the surface it is a monthly book club But for five women it is so much more For Eve Porter whose husband's sudden death cheats her of every security she had planned on the club is a place of sanctuary For Annie Blake a brilliant attorney intent on starting a family late in life it is the chance to finally let down her guard and dream of other possibilities For Doris Bridges it is her support group as she acknowledges her dying marriage and finds the ultimate freedom in her husband's betrayal For Gabriella Rivera the perfect wife mother and friend who offers support to everyone but is afraid to ask for it herself it is a sense of community And for Midge Kirsch an artist who has always lived her life against the grain it is a haven of acceptance They are five women from different walks of life embracing the challenge of change And as they share their hopes and fears and triumphs they will hold fast to the true magic of the book club friendship Monroe offers up believable characters in a well crafted story Publishers Weekly Telling Stories in
