- 1. Costs: Investments in plants and equipment are the key investment decisions that the firm must make when the timing of investment and financing decisions are not certain.
- 2. Timing: The timing of investment and financing decisions is critical to the firm's success. The firm must decide when to invest and when to finance, and the timing of these decisions can have a significant impact on the firm's profitability.
- 3. Financing: The firm must decide how to finance its investments. It can choose to use debt, equity, or a combination of the two. The choice of financing can have a significant impact on the firm's risk and return.
- 4. Capital Structure: The firm's capital structure is the mix of debt and equity that it uses to finance its operations. The firm must decide the optimal capital structure for its business, taking into account its risk and return objectives.
