In the Company of Books Sarah Wadsworth, Associate Professor of English Sarah Wadsworth, 2006-01-01 Tracing the segmentation of the literary marketplace in 19th century America this book analyses the implications of the subdivided literary field for readers writers and literature itself

Handbook of the English Novel, 1830-1900 Martin Middeke, Monika Pietrzak-Franger, 2020-05-05 Part I of this authoritative handbook offers systematic essays which deal with major historical social philosophical political cultural and aesthetic contexts of the English novel between 1830 and 1900 The essays offer a wide scope of aspects such as the Industrial Revolution religion and secularisation science technology medicine evolution or the increasing mediatisation of the lifeworld Part II then leads through the work of more than 25 eminent Victorian novelists Each of these chapters provides both historical and biographical contextualisation overview close reading and analysis They also encourage further research as they look upon the work of the respective authors at issue from the perspectives of cultural and literary theory

Investigating Simenon Russell Campbell, 2022-10-04 For nearly a century the work of Belgian crime writer and psychological novelist Georges Simenon creator of Chief Inspector Maigret has captivated readers worldwide This investigation situates Simenon's work in its historical context and interprets it as a reaction to shifting gender relations in Western society Simenon's compelling narratives capture the anxieties of men whose patriarchal position was under threat in an era of insurgent feminist movements These concerns are also evident in Simenon's pervasive preoccupation with sexuality as well as his political stance that stems from his petit bourgeois upbringing This groundbreaking study includes interwoven commentary on all 191 novels Simenon published under his own name including several that have never been translated into English as well as a number of short stories and several pseudonymous works
