Teaching Bibliography Textual Criticism And Book History:

Teaching Bibliography, Textual Criticism and Book History Ann R Hawkins, 2015-10-06 Offers a variety of approaches to incorporating discussions of book history or print culture into graduate and undergraduate classrooms This work considers the book as a literary historical cultural and aesthetic object These essays are of interest to university teachers incorporating textual studies and research methods into their courses Textual Scholarship and the Material Book Wim Van Mierlo, 2007 In the last decades the emphasis in textual scholarship has moved onto creation production process collaboration onto the material manifestations of a work onto multiple rather than single versions onto reception and book history Textual scholarship now includes not only textual editing but any form of scholarship that looks at the materiality of text of writing of reading and of the book The essays in this collection explore many questions about methodology and theory arising from this widening scope of textual scholarship The range of texts discussed from Sanskrit epic via Medieval Latin commentary through English and Scottish Ballads to the plays of Samuel Beckett and the stories of Guimarães Rosa testifies to the vigour of the discipline The range of texts is matched by a range of approach from theoretical discussion of how text happens to analysis of issues of book design and censorship the connections between literary and textual studies exploration of the links between reception and commodification in George Eliot and between information theory and paratext Through this diversity of subject and approach a common theme emerges the need to look further for common ground from which to continue the debate from a comparative perspective Teaching Literary Research Kathleen A. Johnson, Steven Robert Harris, 2009

Teaching Text Technologies and Critical Bibliography Among the Disciplines Barbara Heritage, Donna A. C. Sy, 2025-05-15 Teaching Text Technologies and Critical Bibliography Among the Disciplines Objects of Study is a richly illustrated volume consisting of 23 methods based chapters discussing innovative and often experimental approaches to hands on teaching with material texts Featuring 47 contributors whose work ranges from digital humanities librarianship curation and conservation to architecture culinary history fine art literary history and the history of science the collection builds on new work in the areas of text technologies and critical bibliography emerging scholarly approaches being embraced in the humanities The book features established experts in bibliography the history of the book manuscript studies and textual editing as well as educators and students who are applying new critical bibliographical methods e g Black bibliography to their pedagogy The result is a dynamic cross disciplinary cross generational exchange modeling inclusive pedagogies with textual artifacts and illuminating how object oriented teaching can harness the insights of diverse branches of practice and learning Resourceful Reading Katherine Bode, Professor Robert Dixon, 2010-01-11 This collection provides the first comprehensive account of eResearch and the new empiricism as they are transforming the field of Australian literary studies in the twenty first century A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Ambassadors of the Book Raphaële Mouren, 2012-12-19 What competences are needed for heritage librarians and how can they be taught The management of heritage collections requires a unique mix of knowledge and skills including expertise in preservation and conservation heritage policies acquisitions and collection management bibliographic description the materiality of books and other collection objects and the history of libraries Librarians must also understand the need for open access the importance of marketing and the challenges posed by digitization Shakespeare and Textual Studies Margaret Jane Kidnie, Sonia Massai, 2015-11-12 Shakespeare and Textual Studies gathers contributions from the leading specialists in the fields of manuscript and textual studies book history editing and digital humanities to provide a comprehensive reassessment of how manuscript print and digital practices have shaped the body of works that we now call Shakespeare This cutting edge collection identifies the legacies of previous theories and places special emphasis on the most recent developments in the editing of Shakespeare since the turn to materialism in the late twentieth century Providing a wide ranging overview of current approaches and debates the book explores Shakespeare's poems and plays in light of new evidence engaging scholars editors and book historians in conversations about the recovery of early composition and publication and the ongoing appropriation and transmission of Shakespeare's works through new technologies Home Ground and Foreign Territory Janice Fiamengo, 2014-04-03 The first multi disciplinary collection of essays to focus exclusively on early Canadian literature with the aim of reassessing the field and proposing new approaches An Introduction to Bibliographical and Textual Studies Craig S. Abbott, William Proctor Williams, 2014-08-01 To a reader of Joyce's Ulysses it makes a difference whether one of Stephen Dedalus's first thoughts is No mother as in the printed version or No mother as in the manuscript The scholarship surrounding such textual differences and why this discipline should concern readers and literary scholars alike is the focus of William Proctor Williams and Craig S Abbott's acclaimed handbook This updated fourth edition outlines the study of texts composition revision physical embodiments process of transmission and manner of reception describes how new technologies such as digital imaging and electronic tagging have changed the way we produce read preserve and research texts discusses why these matters are central to a historical understanding of literature and shows how the insights methods and products of bibliographical and textual studies can be applied to other branches of scholarship Gender and the Book Trades Elise Watson, Jessica Farrell-Jobst, 2024-12-02 This volume proposes a new and radically inclusive approach to the study of the book by using gender as a tool of analysis While female authors and women in the book trades have long been studied gender itself has yet to be explored as a methodology rather than a subject in book history We argue that putting gender analysis into practice requires thinking inclusively about both the book world and the interactions of its participants from the beginning With twenty five pioneering case studies that stretch from colonial Peru to modern Delhi using a variety of intersectional methodologies including network analysis critical bibliography and queer theory Gender and the Book Trades sets out an innovative method of analysing the printed book Contributors Rebecca Baumann Montserrat Cachero Verónica Calsoni Lima Matthew Chambers Kanupriya Dhingra Nora Epstein Natalia
